HE DESIGNATES THE PLACES

A few days since, the writer made mention of side rooms connected with saloons in this city, and of the bad effects resulting therefrom, asserting that such dens of evil surely do exist in East Liverpool, and that many persons are conversant with the fact. Yesterday, in the presence of two reliable and trustworthy witnesses, a young man of this city thoroughly posted in every detail of sporting life, said:

"The side or wine rooms, or club rooms, or side issues of saloons in this city are doing more harm than are the saloons proper. I have named to you the proprietors of saloons who run these side rooms, and I am speaking from actual personal knowledge. Men and women come together for what they term a free and easy and grand old time, and the way they carry on at times is an outrage upon common decency. Women are attracted to these rooms by the offer of the taste (a mere taste, you know) of a rare vintage of the juice of the grape, a delicious palate tickler, just received from a distant or foreign port. They finally yield to the temptation, taste and taste again, and before many months pass they are regular wine tipplers, and can, in an emergency, get outside a good, stiff horn of something much stronger than light wines. It is now only a question of time until they step down from the pedestal of honest and true womanhood, their ruin accomplished premeditatedly by devils in human form. Why, sir, I could give you, were I so disposed, the names of some men and women who assemble in these rooms; and, well as you know me, you would pronounce me a liar and a sensationalist, and would not believe that such things exist in our midst unless you could yourself become an eye witness. I do not say that, as a people, we are more wicked and depraved than are the inhabitants of other cities of like size; but I do believe that we have more cases of the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde stripe to the square foot, than any other territory or location in the nation, and I have traveled all over the states in the pursuit of my business. On the other hand, we have a clean citizenship which can compare favorably with the best in the nation. My object in giving you the pointers I have is for the purpose of showing you that there are some places in your city even more damnable and more to be feared and dreaded than the wide open saloon; and the quicker your city officials and good citizens wipe out these side issues of the saloon, the better it will be for your city and your people."

Talking with another good citizen along this line of club or wine rooms or saloon side issues, he said:

"Some of these places are veritable dens of iniquity. I know a painter in this city who has become a victim to rum. He is a good workman and a man of truth. He tells me that he was engaged in painting and decorating one of these dens not long since, when two well known married men of this city, men who hold their heads high in society and call themselves men of honor, brought two mere bits of girls, not over 15 or 16 years of age into the wine room alongside of that where I was busily engaged, and prevailed upon the school girls taking each a glass of wine. The youngsters had evidently taken their first lesson on the downward path. An awful shame, isn't it, sir? There should be some way of stopping such devil's work."

Only a few months since, a prominent physician of East Liverpool said to the writer:

"I am so situated that I can overlook one of the hell holes in the Midway. One Sunday night I noted two mere bits of girls standing at the doorway of the den, slyly knocking in a peculiar way, evidently a prearranged signal, as I had noted the proprietor go in only a few moments before. I ran downstairs and around into the alley and addressed the youngsters, telling them that I would have them arrested on sight, when they hustled away into the darkness, evidently very much dismayed and frightened. You see, they were yet mere novices, and possibly taking their first bad step. The keeper of this den had been known to make approaches to women of unblemished reputation and clean life, and had endeavored to persuade them to call at his place and sample some of the oldest and best wine ever brought to the city; and the scoundrel, on one occasion, came very nigh paying dearly for his impudence, as he only escaped hot punishment through the pleadings of a good woman with her husband, whom she had informed as to the foul work of the would-be tempter and debauchee."

Citizens of East Liverpool, just and true and clean men and women of this city, these are the testimonies of your own people. Is it not high time that remedial measures were being taken? Are your children safe in such a condition of affairs?

SLOAN-COVERT.

One of This City's Best Known Physicians Married Yesterday Afternoon.

Dr. Jennie Sloan, of this city, and Dr. John W. Covert, of New Castle, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Fifth street, none but the immediate family were present at the ceremony, which was a very quiet affair.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Dr. W. J. Sloan and has enjoyed the respect of all who knew her and had a lucrative practice.

Dr. Covert, the groom, is one of the oldest homeopathic physicians in New Castle.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left on an extended trip to Cleveland, and from there up the lakes and will also make a trip through the east.

TO CHICAGO.

Effort Will be Made to Get Enough People to Go in a Special Car.

A large number of people in the city are making preparations to attend the Grand Army encampment at Chicago, and if possible enough people will be secured to a special car.

At present at least 35 persons have signified their intention of going to the encampment, and every possible effort will be made to secure the 60 necessary to get a car.

And Unless He Pays Up or Leaves

TWO OTHER ARRESTS MADE

The monotony which has prevailed at city hall for several days was relieved somewhat yesterday, and three persons were pinched during the afternoon and evening.

Levi Burrows, who lives in California hollow, got full yesterday and went home last night in a very nasty frame of mind. He abused his family and not being satisfied with this he beat his wife in a shameful manner.

He was arrested by Officer Woods and brought to jail, where he remained all night.

Levi was arraigned this morning, and from the way the mayor went after him, it leaves no doubt in the mind of any one that his honor is not much for wife beaters.

Burrows was fined $25 and costs, $29 60 in all, and will stand committed to the works until the fine and costs are paid. He was sent back to jail, where Mayor Davidson says he will stay until the fine is paid or he puts up gilt-edged security.

Joe Crites entered a complaint against Sherman Thornberry last night in the mayor's court, charging him with being drunk and disorderly. He was run in by Pat Woods and Officer Mahony. At the hearing he was fined $9 60, which he paid and was released.

Frank Lytton and Tom Harker had some trouble on Sixth street yesterday afternoon, and Lytton hit Tom on the head with a cane. He was taken in by Officer Gill and when brought before the mayor was fined $9 60. He paid up and was released.

Teddy Woolscraft was another offender who has the serious charge against him of beating a woman. The victim is a sister-in-law of Teddy's, and the offense was committed at the residence of Betsy Stanaway in the alley between Second and Third streets.

Woolscraft was drunk and was in no mood to be trifled with, and when the woman undertook to argue with him he flew into a passion and kicked a hole in the door and knocked the furniture about, besides assaulting his relative.

He was run in by Officer Woods and the patrol conveyed him to jail. Teddy stands an excellent show for the works, and will more than likely share the fate of Burrows.

A man who had papers in his clothes bearing the name of C. Morgan was fast asleep at the foot of Jackson street. He was lying only a short distance from the railroad tracks and had he made a move in that direction he would have landed squarely on the track.

Chief Thompson saw the danger the fellow was in and concluded the cooler was a safer and much more comfortable spot for a snoozer, so he called the patrol and Mr. Morgan is now behind the bars. He will get a hearing this evening when he gets sober.

Charley Brindley, for the third time in three weeks, has again become mixed up with the authorities at city hall. Brindley was arrested by Officer Woods, and he was so drunk that he had to be almost carried into the patrol. He was reposit at the jail, and it is probable he will accompany a few others in a trip to Canton.

ATTACHMENT CASES.

SEVEN PENDING IN M'CARRON'S COURT.

John Cain Gets a Judgment Against Mark and Mary Gribbins.

There are no less than seven attachment cases pending in the court of Justice McCarron.

Papers were served this morning in the case of John Cain versus Mark and Mary Gribbins.

On the 16th of last May judgment was rendered in favor of Cain for $16 10, including the costs in the case. At that time Gribbins was in the employ of the McNicol pottery, and $5 34 of that amount was paid.

Defendants were then lost sight of for a time, and on August 2 Cain made a second attempt to secure the balance of the money due him. Judgment in aid of execution was rendered, and Gribbins had in the meantime secured employment at the Thompson pottery.

The amount of the second judgment, $10 76, will be collected at once. Mrs. Jennie Gribbins, the other defendant in the suit, is now in Europe.

SAYS FIRING ON LEGATIONS MUST STOP.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9.—A dispatch sent by the Chinese government through Minister Wu demands that firing on legations shall cease and says that imperial government, if desired, will show friendliness and co-operate with relieving column.

AUSTRIAN MINISTER SENDS A DISPATCH.

Vienna, Aug. 9.—Austrian representative in Peking says in a dispatch dated August 4 that the legations were burned on June 21, and there has been continuous firing since then. Part of the legations were blown up by mines.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Arrangements Being Made for the Opening of the Campaign in This County.

State Treasurer I. B. Cameron arrived in Lisbon last evening and this afternoon a session of the county executive Republican committee was held for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization and outlining the work for the opening of the presidential campaign in this county.

Admitted to Probate.

Lisbon, Aug. 9.—(Special.)—The will of the late Elva S. Patterson, of Wayne township, was admitted to probate; also the will in the estate of the late Eliza Dibble, of this city, and Mary H. Dibble and Harriet Pritchard appointed executors. No bond was required and appraisers excused.

The will in the estate of Eliza Porter, of Knox township, was filed and a commission issued to take the testimony of a subscribing witness.

N. Taylor.

GIVE THEM A ROYAL WELCOME

Governor George K. Nash has announced that he will attend the Township Line picnic on August 16, and many people from this city will undoubtedly take advantage of the chance to hear the state's executive deliver an address at the picnic.

Governor Nash will be accompanied by State Treasurer I. B. Cameron and will arrive in this city on the afternoon of August 15 and will spend the night in this city as the guests of Colonel John N. Taylor, at his home on Sixth street.

Preparations should be made at once to give the governor and our former county treasurer a hearty welcome, and they will be received here in royal manner, as the city never does anything by half.

It is not known yet just what train they will arrive upon, but when the time has been fixed the city will undoubtedly turn out en masse and greet the distinguished visitors.

An effort will be made to have the governor make a short address in this city.

He was arrested by Officer Woods and brought to jail, where he remained all night.

Levi was arraigned this morning, and from the way the mayor went after him, it leaves no doubt in the mind of any one that his honor is not much for wife beaters.

Burrows was fined $25 and costs, $29 60 in all, and will stand committed to the works until the fine and costs are paid. He was sent back to jail, where Mayor Davidson says he will stay until the fine is paid or he puts up gilt-edged security.

Joe Crites entered a complaint against Sherman Thornberry last night in the mayor's court, charging him with being drunk and disorderly. He was run in by Pat Woods and Officer Mahony. At the hearing he was fined $9 60, which he paid and was released.

Frank Lytton and Tom Harker had some trouble on Sixth street yesterday afternoon, and Lytton hit Tom on the head with a cane. He was taken in by Officer Gill and when brought before the mayor was fined $9 60. He paid up and was released.

Teddy Woolcraft was another offender who has the serious charge against him of beating a woman. The victim is a sister-in-law of Teddy's, and the offense was committed at the residence of Betsy Stanaway in the alley between Second and Third streets.

Woolcraft was drunk and was in no mood to be trifled with, and when the woman undertook to argue with him he flew into a passion and kicked a hole in the door and knocked the furniture about, besides assaulting his relative.

He was run in by Officer Woods and the patrol conveyed him to jail. Teddy stands an excellent show for the works, and will more than likely share the fate of Burrows.

A man who had papers in his clothes bearing the name of C. Morgan was fast asleep at the foot of Jackson street. He was lying only a short distance from the railroad tracks and had he made a move in that direction he would have landed squarely on the track.

Chief Thompson saw the danger the fellow was in and concluded the cooler was a safer and much more comfortable spot for a snoozer, so he called the patrol and Mr. Morgan is now behind the bars. He will get a hearing this evening when he gets sober.

Charley Brindley, for the third time in three weeks, has again become mixed up with the authorities at city hall. Brindley was arrested by Officer Woods, and he was so drunk that he had to be almost carried into the patrol. He was repositated at the jail, and it is probable he will accompany a few others in a trip to Canton.

ATTACHMENT CASES.

SEVEN PENDING IN M'CARRON'S
COURT.

John Cain Gets a Judgment Against
Mark and Mary
Gribbins.

There are no less than seven attachment cases pending in the court of Justice McCarron.

Papers were served this morning in the case of John Cain versus Mark and Mary Gribbins.

On the 16th of last May judgment was rendered in favor of Cain for $16 10, including the costs in the case. At that time Gribbins was in the employ of the McNicol pottery, and $5 34 of that amount was paid.

Defendants were then lost sight of for a time, and on August 2 Cain made a second attempt to secure the balance of the money due him. Judgment in aid of execution was rendered, and Gribbins had in the meantime secured employment at the Thompson pottery.

The amount of the second judgment, $10 76, will be collected at once. Mrs. Jennie Gribbins, the other defendant in the suit, is now in Europe.

SAYS FIRING ON LEGATIONS MUST STOP.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9.—A dispatch sent by the Chinese government through Minister Wu demands that firing on legations shall cease and says that imperial government, if desired, will show friendliness and cooperate with relieving column.

AUSTRIAN MINISTER SENDS A DISPATCH.

Vienna, Aug. 9.—Austrian representative in Peking says in a dispatch dated August 4 that the legations were burned on June 21, and there has been continuous firing since then. Part of the legations were blown up by mines.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

Arrangements Being Made for the Opening of the Campaign in This County.

State Treasurer I. B. Cameron arrived in Lisbon last evening and this afternoon a session of the county executive Republican committee was held for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization and outlining the work for the opening of the presidential campaign in this county.

Admitted to Probate.

Lisbon, Aug. 9.—(Special.)—The will of the late Elva S. Patterson, of Wayne township, was admitted to probate; also the will in the estate of the late Eliza Dibble, of this city, and Mary H. Dibble and Harriet Pritchard appointed executors. No bond was required and appraisers excused.

The will in the estate of Eliza Porter, of Knox township, was filed and a commission issued to take the testimony of a subscribing witness.

GOVERNOR NASH WILL BE HERE

Accompanied by State Treasurer
Cameron He Will Arrive In the City on

NEXT WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Will Spend the Night In the City
the Guest of Col. John
N. Taylor.

GIVE THEM A ROYAL WELCOME

Governor George K. Nash has announced that he will attend the Township Line picnic on August 16, and many people from this city will undoubtedly take advantage of the chance to hear the state's executive deliver an address at the picnic.

Governor Nash will be accompanied by State Treasurer I. B. Cameron and will arrive in this city on the afternoon of August 15 and will spend the night in this city as the guests of Colonel John N. Taylor, at his home on Sixth street.

Preparations should be made at once to give the governor and our former county treasurer a hearty welcome, and they will be received here in royal manner, as the city never does anything by half.

It is not known yet just what train they will arrive upon, but when the time has been fixed the city will undoubtedly turn out en masse and greet the distinguished visitors.

An effort will be made to have the governor make a short address in this city.

WANT TO KNOW.

Kossuth Street Residents Wonder Why
the Street Sweeper Never Gets On Their Street.

Residents of Kossuth street are wondering why the street sweeper never gets to that street. Broadway and Walnut streets are cleaned, but Kossuth from Broadway to Walnut is not touched.

The residents think the street should at least be swept every time Walnut and Broadway are cleaned, and are anxious to know why they are slighted.

'WILL LECTURE.

Mrs. Barnes Says She Proposes to Tell the English People What Kind of Justice They Have Here.

Mrs. John Barnes has announced that she proposes to go back to England, take her little girl's clothes with her and take to the lecture platform. She says she will show to the English people just what kind of justice they have in this country. In the meantime the girl is still at the home of Mrs. Vincent.

Order of Public Sale.

Lisbon, Aug. 9.—(Special.)—An order of public sale was issued for a 91-acre farm in Perry township in the case of W. S. Emmon, assignee versus Wm. H. Esterly.

One Marriage License.

Lisbon, Aug. 9.—(Special.)—James E. Patterson, of Madison township, today secured a license to marry Miss Carrie Neil, of Jefferson county.

IDA O'CONNOR FILED A CHARGE

Accused Her Husband, Edward O'Connor, Jr., of Assaulting Her but Was Persuaded

TO WITHDRAW THE CHARGE

Later She Returned to McCarron's Court, Entered Suit and Eddie Gave Bond.

CASE TO BE HEARD AUGUST 20

Mrs. Ida O'Connor on last Tuesday filed a complaint in the court of Justice McCarron against Edward O'Connor, jr., her husband, charging him with assault and battery.

Constable Powell went to the O'Connor factory and brought Edward into court. After considerable argument the charge was withdrawn and the parties went home.

Yesterday morning Mrs. O'Connor again appeared at the office of the justice and made a second complaint, charging her husband with the same offense as on the previous occasion.

She says he came home the evening before and abused her and threatened to kill her. Mrs. O'Connor is determined to prosecute her husband this time, and says that no amount of persuasion would induce her to withdraw the charge.

Mrs. O'Connor went to Pittsburg this morning, where she will remain with her parents until the time set for the trial.

The union has been anything but a happy one, their domestic troubles dating from a time almost immediately after the ceremony was performed.

Justice McCarron placed O'Connor under $500 bond for his appearance on Monday, August 20, at which time the case will be heard.

Attorney G. Y. Travis has been retained by Mrs. O'Connor and M. J. McGarry will represent the husband.

PENSIONS.

Commissioner Evan's Report Will Show That 993,529 Are on Uncle Sam's Rolls.

The forthcoming annual report of the commissioner of pensions, Mr. Evans, will show a grand total of 993,529 pensioners on the rolls on July 1 last.

The figures on which the report will be based are now complete and ready for incorporation in the report.

They show that on July 1, 1899, there were 991,519 pensioners on the rolls. During the year 40,645 original pensions were granted and 4,699 names were restored to the rolls.

To offset this 43,334 names were dropped from the rolls during the year, including 35,809 by reason of death, 909 by remarriage of pensioners and 6,616 for other causes, leaving the total number on the rolls on July 1, 1900, 993,529.

This is an increase of 2,010 pensioners for the year. The number of claims of all kinds pending July 1, 1900, was 437,104, against 477,239 on July 1, 1899.

The report shows a total of 260,797 names dropped during the six years ended June 30, of which 193,014 were because of deaths. The number dropped by reason of death during the fiscal year just closed is about 14,200 less than was estimated.

Pike Abandoned.

The Wellsville, Hammondsville, Irondale and Somerset pike, known as the Big Four pike, which it was proposed to build this summer, has practically been abandoned. The petitions for an additional levy of four mills have been laid aside, as there is at present too much opposition to a 10-mill levy.

MEETINGS OF VETERANS.

Where a Number of Reunions of Old Soldiers Will be Held This Summer.

Reunions of the war of the rebellion will be held as follows:

One Hundred and Fourth Ohio infantry at Minerva August 8 and 9.

Sherman brigade, consisting of the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Ohio infantry, Sixth battery and McLaughlin's squadron of cavalry, at Crestline, August 14, 15, 16 and 17.

Fourth Ohio infantry at Marion, August 30.

One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Ohio infantry at Steubenville, August 20.

Ninety-eighth and Ninety-ninth Ohio infantry at Uhrichsville, October 10.

Companies C and G, Forty-third Ohio infantry, at Bowerstown, August 14.

Cadiz soldiers' reunion, August 16.

Soldiers' reunion at Perry's Den, Noble county, August 23 and 24.

LADIES' FINE SHOES.

You Can Secure the Very Nicest Goods Manufactured, Neat, Durable, Stylish.

Where? At Frazier's Shoe Parlor, 167 Fifth street. How can you be assured of this? Simplest thing in the world. Just take a jaunt to the handsome shoe parlor and convince yourself, as you will find the noblest goods ever manufactured, all widths and sizes, and at most reasonable figures. Courteous salesmen will deem it a great pleasure to wait upon you. Test the matter and be convinced.

AN ACCIDENT.

The Little Daughter of Rev. Platts Turned on the Gas and an Explosion Followed.

Steubenville Herald Star.

An accident occurred at the home of Rev. J. A. Platts, of Mingo, yesterday. A little 2-year-old daughter had turned on the gas in the stove and Mrs. Platts, not knowing this, lighted the gas, causing an explosion and burning Mrs. Platts and little daughter Dorothy very painfully but not seriously.

AGAINST CIGARETTES.

A Society Has Been Formed in Columbus to Protest Against the Thing.

An anti-cigarette society has been formed in Columbus and a petition has been sent to the board of education of that city, asking that a rule be passed prohibiting smoking about the school yards. The cooperation of the school children will also be asked.

Farmer Delegates.

Governor Nash on Tuesday appointed a delegation of one from each county to represent Ohio in the National Farmers' congress at Colorado Springs, Col., August 21-23.

From Stark county he appointed Webster Reeder; from Carroll, W. L. Smelts, jr., and from Columbiana, J. W. Hoopes.

A Tax on Poles.

New Brighton council has passed an ordinance levying a tax of $1 per year upon each telephone, telegraph and electric light pole in that city.

If East Liverpool had an ordinance like that there wouldn't be any deficiency in the city treasury.

They Want a Game.

Toronto Tribune.

Patrick Kessler, manager of the high school base ball team of East Liverpool, is anxious for a game with the Toronto high school boys on Saturday, August 18.

MRS. HECKATHORN

A Former Resident of the City Died Monday at Her Home Near Negley.

Mrs. George Heckathorn died Monday at her home near Negley, cancer being the cause.

Mrs. Heckathorn was well known in this city, where she resided for many years. She was 63 years of age and had been married twice, being the widow of Potter Welsh, when she was united to Mr. Heckathorn.

Besides her husband deceased leaves six children to the Welsh union, Emma, Flo, Mary, Edward Bert and William, to mourn her death.

Funeral services were conducted at the late residence, a number of persons from this city being present, and interment was made in Long Run's cemetery.

STICK TOGETHER.

The Way Sebring People Help Each Other Out of Trouble Causes Comment in Alliance.

A few days ago Jack Joyce and S. A. Baker, of Sebring, were arrested and placed in the Alliance jail on charges of drunk and disorderly. In commenting on the arrests an Alliance paper says:

"The way the Sebring people stick to one another when one gets into trouble has often caused comment. Baker's fine was paid by friends and Joyce, who was slated for the works on a dose of $20 and costs, was released last night, his fine being settled for by his Sebring friends."

TO EXCURSIONISTS.

Are You Going to Chicago for the Meeting of the G. A. R. Boys in August.

It will be a grand time among the old veterans and their friends in Chicago at the coming national convention. A number of our residents are anxious to attend and will go in a special car. Do you desire to take part? If you do, leave your names with Mack Anderson, at C. G. Anderson's drug store, in the Diamond.

Will Enforce the Ordinances.

The police authorities of Beaver have directed that all boys found shooting birds inside of the borough limits shall be arrested, and also that the ordinance against throwing paper on the streets, pavements and parks shall be strictly enforced.

It would be a good idea to have like ordinances in this city enforced.

A Colony from Massillon.

Fifty people have gone from Massillon to Oklahoma for the purpose of forming a colony on government lands. They will form a municipality along lines advanced by local and socialistic leaders.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter of West Fifth street, who says: "If everyone receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills, my advice is, go to Larkin's drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to anyone personally calling upon me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Convention to be Held at Columbiana Next Week Will be a Large One.

The Ohio State Mennonite Sunday school conference to be held at Columbiana Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week will be one of the greatest gatherings of that character to be held in the state this year. Over 1,000 delegates will be in attendance, and the sessions will be held in a large tent designed especially for the accommodation of the conference.

The Mennonite society is particularly strong in the country about Columbiana, Leetonia and Washingtonville.

POTTERS STILL DELAYED.

The Manufacturers Labor Committee Were Not at Home and Couldn't Act.

Trepton True American.

The executive board of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters received a communication from the committee on labor of the manufacturers association yesterday, stating that action on the resolutions passed at the recent kilnmen's meeting had been deferred, owing to the absence of some of the members of the committee.

The communication was promptly answered, the executive board requesting prompt action, saying that they could not go ahead in their work until they knew whether or not the resolutions were accepted.

What Makes Home?

Home is made by the family. Without the love which comes with children there may be a house but never a home, in the best meaning of the word. Many a house which was only four walls and a roof has been made a home by the agency of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Nature sets her face against childlessness and "Favorite Prescription" works with nature to remove the obstacles to maternity.

"I had been a sufferer from uterine trouble for about three years, having two miscarriages in that time and the doctors that I consulted said I would have to go through an operation before I could give birth to children," writes Mrs. Blanche E. Evans, of Parsons, Luzerne Co., Pa., Box 41. "When about to give up in despair, I bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and after taking it felt better than I had for years. Felt improved before I had taken one-half bottle. After taking four and a half bottles I gave birth to a bright baby girl who is now four months old and has not had a day of sickness. She is as bright as can be. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

"I had been a sufferer from uterine trouble for about three years, having two miscarriages in that time and the doctors that I consulted said I would have to go through an operation before I could give birth to children," writes Mrs. Blanche E. Evans, of Parsons, Lusher Co., Pa., Box 41. "When about to give up in despair, I bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and after taking it felt better than I had for years. It improved before I had taken one-half bottle. After taking four and a half bottles I gave birth to a bright baby girl who is now four months old and has not had a day of sickness. She is as bright as can be. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser a work for every woman is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covered book or 31 stamps for cloth covered to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

IDA O'CONNOR FILED A CHARGE

Accused Her Husband, Edward O'Connor, Jr., of Assaulting Her but Was Persuaded

TO WITHDRAW THE CHARGE

Later She Returned to McCarron's Court, Entered Suit and Eddie Gave Bond.

CASE TO BE HEARD AUGUST 20

Mrs. Ida O'Connor on last Tuesday filed a complaint in the court of Justice McCarron against Edward O'Connor, jr., her husband, charging him with assault and battery.

Constable Powell went to the O'Connor factory and brought Edward into court. After considerable argument the charge was withdrawn and the parties went home.

Yesterday morning Mrs. O'Connor again appeared at the office of the justice and made a second complaint, charging her husband with the same offense as on the previous occasion.

She says he came home the evening before and abused her and threatened to kill her. Mrs. O'Connor is determined to prosecute her husband this time, and says that no amount of persuasion would induce her to withdraw the charge.

Mrs. O'Connor went to Pittsburg this morning, where she will remain with her parents until the time set for the trial.

The union has been anything but a happy one, their domestic troubles dating from a time almost immediately after the ceremony was performed.

Justice McCarron placed O'Connor under $500 bond for his appearance on Monday, August 20, at which time the case will be heard.

Attorney G. Y. Travis has been retained by Mrs. O'Connor and M. J. McGarry will represent the husband.

PENSIONS.

Commissioner Evan's Report Will Show That 993,529 Are on Uncle Sam's Rolls.

The forthcoming annual report of the commissioner of pensions, Mr. Evans, will show a grand total of 993,529 pensioners on the rolls on July 1 last.

The figures on which the report will be based are now complete and ready for incorporation in the report.

They show that on July 1, 1899, there were 991,519 pensioners on the rolls. During the year 40,645 original pensions were granted and 4,699 names were restored to the rolls.

To offset this 43,334 names were dropped from the rolls during the year, including 35,809 by reason of death, 909 by remarriage of pensioners and 6,616 for other causes, leaving the total number on the rolls on July 1, 1900, 993,529.

This is an increase of 2,010 pensioners for the year. The number of claims of all kinds pending July 1, 1900, was 437,104, against 477,239 on July 1, 1899.

The report shows a total of 260,797 names dropped during the six years ended June 30, of which 193,014 were because of deaths. The number dropped by reason of death during the fiscal year just closed is about 14,200 less than was estimated.

Pike Abandoned.

The Wellsville, Hammondsville, Irondale and Somerset pike, known as the Big Four pike, which it was proposed to build this summer, has practically been abandoned. The petitions for an additional levy of four mills have been laid aside, as there is at present too much opposition to a 10-mill levy.

MEETINGS OF VETERANS.

Where a Number of Reunions of Old Soldiers Will be Held This Summer.

Reunions of the war of the rebellion will be held as follows:

One Hundred and Fourth Ohio infantry at Minerva August 8 and 9.

Sherman brigade, consisting of the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Ohio infantry, Sixth battery and McLaughlin's squadron of cavalry, at Crestline, August 14, 15, 16 and 17.

Fourth Ohio infantry at Marion, August 30.

One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Ohio infantry at Steubenville, August 20.

Ninety-eighth and Ninety-ninth Ohio infantry at Uhrichville, October 10.

Companies C and G, Forty-third Ohio infantry, at Bowerstown, August 14.

Cadiz soldiers' reunion, August 16.

Soldiers' reunion at Perry's Den, Noble county, August 23 and 24.

LADIES' FINE SHOES.

You Can Secure the Very Nicest Goods Manufactured, Neat, Durable, Stylish.

Where? At Frazier's Shoe Parlor, 167 Fifth street. How can you be assured of this? Simplest thing in the world. Just take a jaunt to the handsome shoe parlor and convince yourself, as you will find the noblest goods ever manufactured, all widths and sizes, and at most reasonable figures. Courteous salesmen will deem it a great pleasure to wait upon you. Test the matter and be convinced.

AN ACCIDENT.

The Little Daughter of Rev. Platts Turned on the Gas and an Explosion Followed.

Steubenville Herald Star.

An accident occurred at the home of Rev. J. A. Platts, of Mingo, yesterday. A little 2-year-old daughter had turned on the gas in the stove and Mrs. Platts, not knowing this, lighted the gas, causing an explosion and burning Mrs. Platts and little daughter Dorothy very painfully but not seriously.

AGAINST CIGARETTES.

A Society Has Been Formed in Columbus to Protest Against the Thing.

An anti-cigarette society has been formed in Columbus and a petition has been sent to the board of education of that city, asking that a rule be passed prohibiting smoking about the school yards. The cooperation of the school children will also be asked.

Farmer Delegates.

Governor Nash on Tuesday appointed a delegation of one from each county to represent Ohio in the National Farmers' congress at Colorado Springs, Col., August 21-23.

From Stark county he appointed Webster Reeder; from Carroll, W. L. Smelts, jr., and from Columbiana, J. W. Hoopes.

A Tax on Poles.

New Brighton council has passed an ordinance levying a tax of $1 per year upon each telephone, telegraph and electric light pole in that city.

If East Liverpool had an ordinance like that there wouldn't be any deficiency in the city treasury.

They Want a Game.

Toronto Tribune.

Patrick Kessler, manager of the high school base ball team of East Liverpool, is anxious for a game with the Toronto high school boys on Saturday, August 18.

MRS. HECKATHORN

A Former Resident of the City Died Monday at Her Home Near Negley.

Mrs. George Heckathorn died Monday at her home near Negley, cancer being the cause.

Mrs. Heckathorn was well known in this city, where she resided for many years. She was 63 years of age and had been married twice, being the widow of Potter Welsh, when she was united to Mr. Heckathorn.

Besides her husband deceased leaves six children to the Welsh union, Emma, Flo, Mary, Edward Bert and William, to mourn her death.

Funeral services were conducted at the late residence, a number of persons from this city being present, and interment was made in Long Run's cemetery.

STICK TOGETHER.

The Way Sebring People Help Each Other Out of Trouble Causes Comment in Alliance.

A few days ago Jack Joyce and S. A. Baker, of Sebring, were arrested and placed in the Alliance jail on charges of drunk and disorderly. In commenting on the arrests an Alliance paper says:

"The way the Sebring people stick to one another when one gets into trouble has often caused comment. Baker's fine was paid by friends and Joyce, who was slated for the works on a dose of $20 and costs, was released last night, his fine being settled for by his Sebring friends."

TO EXCURSIONISTS.

Are You Going to Chicago for the Meeting of the G. A. R. Boys in August.

It will be a grand time among the old veterans and their friends in Chicago at the coming national convention. A number of our residents are anxious to attend and will go in a special car. Do you desire to take part? If you do, leave your names with Mack Anderson, at C. G. Anderson's drug store, in the Diamond.

Will Enforce the Ordinances.

The police authorities of Beaver have directed that all boys found shooting birds inside of the borough limits shall be arrested, and also that the ordinance against throwing paper on the streets, pavements and parks shall be strictly enforced.

It would be a good idea to have like ordinances in this city enforced.

A Colony from Massillon.

Fifty people have gone from Massillon to Oklahoma for the purpose of forming a colony on government lands. They will form a municipality along lines advanced by local and socialistic leaders.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter of West Fifth street, who says: "If everyone receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills, my advice is, go to Larkin's drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to anyone personally calling upon me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Convention to be Held at Columbiana Next Week Will be a Large One.

The Ohio State Mennonite Sunday school conference to be held at Columbiana Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week will be one of the greatest gatherings of that character to be held in the state this year. Over 1,000 delegates will be in attendance, and the sessions will be held in a large tent designed especially for the accommodation of the conference.

The Mennonite society is particularly strong in the country about Columbiana, Leetonia and Washingtonville.

POTTERS STILL DELAYED.

The Manufacturers Labor Committee Were Not at Home and Couldn't Act.

Trepton True American. The executive board of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters received a communication from the committee on labor of the manufacturers association yesterday, stating that action on the resolutions passed at the recent kilnmen's meeting had been deferred, owing to the absence of some of the members of the committee.

The communication was promptly answered, the executive board requesting prompt action, saying that they could not go ahead in their work until they knew whether or not the resolutions were accepted.

What Makes Home?

Home is made by the family. Without the love which comes with children there may be a house but never a home, in the best meaning of the word. Many a house which was only four walls and a roof has been made a home by the agency of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Nature sets her face against childlessness and "Favorite Prescription" works with nature to remove the obstacles to maternity.

"I had been a sufferer from uterine trouble for about three years, having two miscarriages in that time and the doctors that I consulted said I would have to go through an operation before I could give birth to children," writes Mrs. Blanche E. Evans, of Parsons, Lusher Co., Pa. Box 41. "When about to give up in despair, I bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and after taking it felt better than I had for years. And now the statement is made that Uncle Sam is really riled, and mad in earnest, and that Washee Washee will be called to a strict account.

SIDE WINE ROOMS.

Read article in today's issue on this subject. There are some startlers contained therein, and investigation has demonstrated the truthfulness of these startlers.

GOVERNOR NASH.

Undeniably information says that Governor Nash will be in East Liverpool on August 15, the guest of Colonel John Taylor, and that the governor will be at the Township Line picnic. State Treasurer I. B. Cameron will accompany the governor on the trip.

WIFE BEATERS.

If ever Mayor Billy Davidson did a good thing, it was when he put $29 60 against the record of a wife beater. Pity it is that he could not have made it even heavier, and added imprisonment at hard labor for six months or a year. We have some noted wife beaters in East Liverpool, and they are just a little lower, in the estimation of true men, than a mangy yellow cur. No true man or woman should even recognize such miserable creatures.

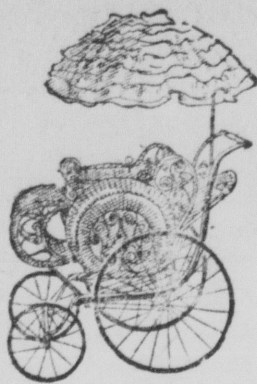

TENTH REGIMENT.

The Pittsburg Post, in referring to the turning over of the old flag of the Tenth Pennsylvania infantry, U. S. volunteers, to Governor Stone, says that the present color sergeant, Harry Cundall, carried the flag all through the battles in which the Tenth participated in the Philippines. Cundall did nothing of the kind. Color Sergeant Harry Palmer carried the colors at the time of the battle of Malate, July 31 and August 1, 1898. The colors were left in camp that night by order of Colonel A. L. Hawkins, who led the reinforcements, under charge of Color Sergeant Harry Palmer, to the battle field, and did good and effective duty in that fight, the color guard, Harry Evans, of Ruffsdale, Westmoreland county, Pa., and Eddie Boyle, of Beaver Falls, Beaver county, Pa., were Nos. 1 and 2 in the first form of the reinforcements, and the writer knows that they did faithful service and good sharpshooting, special service for the occasion, assigned especially thereto by Colonel Hawkins. Further, the same color bearer and the same color guard took part in the battle and capture of Manila, and the colors of the Tenth Pennsylvania were 150 yards in advance of those of any other regiment in the army of occupation when General Greene sent a mounted courier dashing up to Colonel A. L. Hawkins with orders that the Tenth regiment should halt. Afterwards, the regulars and the Nebraska boys were permitted to go in front, as per the orders of General Greene, the Nebraska boys coming up from the left and rear of the Tenth regiment and passing them in a narrow alley way. The color bearer of the Tenth, standing alongside of his beloved commander, pointed out the advanced position of the regiment to the colonel just before Greene's orderly came to the front. Cundall was not made color sergeant until after Color Sergeant Palmer was discharged by order of the secretary of war, and either Boyle or Evans should have been selected for that berth, as they had both been warmly commended for faithful and gallant service. Favoritism did the work for Cundall, as he is a Washington boy and could be right at headquarters all the time. We have nothing to say against Harry Cundall, as we believe he is all right personally and that he will not flinch in the hour of emergency. If fate carries the Tenth to China, he will have a good chance to show his colors.

OHIO PEOPLE

THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN MURDERED IN CHINA.

The List Contains the Names of Several Prominent Ministers in This State.

An incomplete list of the American missionaries who are supposed to have been slain by the Boxers contains the names of several Ohioans. These unfortunates are:

Miss Mary E. Andrews, Congregationalist, associate professor of theology in the North China college, born in Cleveland in 1840; has been in China since 1888.

Rev. Dr. William S. Ament, superintendent of the Congregational mission at Peking; born at Owosso, Mich.; in China since 1877. His wife, Mrs. Mary A. Penfield Ament, and their two children are now in Owosso, Mich.

Rev. George Ritchie Davis, presiding elder of the Methodist church in the Peking district; born at Kingston, O., in 1847; in China since 1870; married Miss Marion Kane Brown, a missionary, in 1871, who, with their seven children, are in this country.

Rev. James H. Ingram, Congregationalist, born at Mansfield, O., in 1858; in China since 1887; father, Robert Ingram, lives in Vineland, N. J.

Mrs. George D. N. Lowry, formerly Miss Catherine Mullican, of Cincinnati, O., where her father now lives.

Lowry, infant son of Dr. and Mrs. George D. N. Lowry.

Miss Luella Miner, Congregationalist, born at Oberlin, O., in 1861; studied at Oberlin college; in China since 1887.

Miss Virginia C. Murdock, M. D., Congregationalist; born at Zanesville, O., in 1850; formerly lived in Chicago; in China since 1881.

Mrs. A. H. Smith, formerly Miss Emma Dickinson, Congregationalist; born near Zanesville, O., in 1849; Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have one of their sons in this country.

Rev. J. L. Whiting, Presbyterian; born in Rochester, N. Y., in 1835; in China since 1869; wife and daughter now in Wooster, O.

NOT A FORTUNE.

That Letter Simply Wanted to Know if Schepp Got a Fortune from England.

Several months ago a letter was received at the city police station from Germany, inquiring about a man named Schepp. The letter when translated by a local party left the impression that there was a fortune in Germany for Schepp.

It was nothing of the kind. The German parties had simply written here to find out if Schepp had received a fortune from England.

The Same Old Story.

"Didn't know it was loaded" caused the death of Roldo Boyd, a 15-year-old boy of Coshocton. He was showing a number of his friends that his revolver was empty and placing it against his temple snapped it, when it went off, killing him almost instantly.

SOME GREASE

Caused a Great Deal of Smoke Last Night and Fire Department Made a Run.

Last evening at 6:30 the grease in a frying pan at the Arcade restaurant caught fire, and from the amount of flame and smoke, people in the vicinity imagined the whole building was on fire.

A message was sent to the fire department, and in a remarkably short time the firemen responded, but the fire had been extinguished almost immediately, and their services were not needed.

A NEW UNION.

A Branch of the Retail Clerks Instituted at Rochester, Pa., Last Night.

Deputy Organizer J. E. Anderson, accompanied by D. M. McLane and Edward Larkins, returned from Rochester last night, where they on last evening organized a branch of the retail clerks' union.

The new local starts with a membership of 35, and the prospects are good for a very successful union in that place. Officers were installed and a pleasant time was had by the visitors.

THE PICNIC.

Warehouse Girls Entertained Their Friends at Columbian Park Yesterday.

The first annual picnic of the warehouse girls given at Columbian park yesterday was an immense success. Everybody who attended enjoyed themselves and returned home at a late hour last night.

The ball game between the shoe clerks and clothing clerks proved to be an easy thing for the shoe clerks, who won by a score of 12 to 5.

LEFT TODAY.

A Large Number of Persons Took in the Excursion to Niagara Falls.

A number of persons from this city took advantage of the excursion to Niagara Falls and among those who left this afternoon were:

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cripps, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Ansley, Mrs. R. L. Herbert and City Treasurer S. T. Herbert.

—Ernest Orr and Richard Manor returned to the city yesterday after a 15-day stay at Denver, Col.

PUBLIC FUNDS.

Can be Used by Officials of State Hospitals for Their Expenses Attending Official Meetings.

It will be remembered that the reason assigned for the small attendance at the recent meeting in Massillon of the officials of state hospitals, was that the expenses of the persons attending was not paid by the state. Ex-Governor Charles Foster, who was chairman of the conference, has since looked into the matter, and, upon the authority of the state auditor, he states that that official has not and will not rule that public funds cannot be used for this purpose. It is expected, therefore, that the October meeting will be well attended.

Rural Postal Rates.

Postmaster General Smith has issued the following order regarding the postal rates and the cancellation of stamps in the rural free delivery districts:

1. It is ordered that, beginning August 1, the drop letter, or 1-cent rate of postage, will not apply within rural free delivery limits. The 2-cent per ounce rate will be exacted within such delivery on all first-class mail except postal cards.

2. That the introduction of rural free delivery will not increase or otherwise modify the present rate of postage on second-class matter.

3. That the rural free delivery carriers will not bring to the postoffice mail matter collected by them which may be delivered on their routes before completing their trips.

4. That stamps on mail matter collected by rural free delivery carriers, including those on matter delivered en route, as named in section 3, will be cancelled by them and reported to the postmaster, who will derive the benefit of the cancellation if the office is fourth class.

5. That until suitable rubber cancelling stamps can be supplied by the department free delivery carriers will cancel the stamps with the indelible pencils furnished them for use in registered letters.

Salem Creditors Paid.

Clerk of Courts McNutt, as receiver in the case of Furman Gee vs. the Salem Church Organ company, has declared a first dividend of 55 per cent on all claims presented to him. About $25,000 will be distributed among the creditors, and a further dividend will be declared later.

Wanted.

Any person having a copy of the Evening News Review of Monday, April 2, 1900, will confer a favor by bringing or sending the same to this office.

LOST—A bunch of keys. Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning same to J. C. McQuilkin, West Market street.

Further, the same color bearer and the same color guard took part in the battle and capture of Manila, and the colors of the Tenth Pennsylvania were 150 yards in advance of those of any other regiment in the army of occupation when General Greene sent a mounted courier dashing up to Colonel A. L. Hawkins with orders that the Tenth regiment should halt. Afterwards, the regulars and the Nebraska boys were permitted to go in front, as per the orders of General Greene, the Nebraska boys coming up from the left and rear of the Tenth regiment and passing them in a narrow alley way. The color bearer of the Tenth, standing alongside of his beloved commander, pointed out the advanced position of the regiment to the colonel just before Greene's orderly came to the front. Cundall was not made color sergeant until after Color Sergeant Palmer was discharged by order of the secretary of war, and either Boyle or Evans should have been selected for that berth, as they had both been warmly commended for faithful and gallant service. Favoritism did the work for Cundall, as he is a Washington boy and could be right at headquarters all the time. We have nothing to say against Harry Cundall, as we believe he is all right personally and that he will not flinch in the hour of emergency. If fate carries the Tenth to China, he will have a good chance to show his colors.

OHIO PEOPLE

THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN MURDERED IN CHINA.

The List Contains the Names of Several Prominent Ministers in This State.

An incomplete list of the American missionaries who are supposed to have been slain by the Boxers contains the names of several Ohioans. These unfortunates are:

Miss Mary E. Andrews, Congregationalist, associate professor of theology in the North China college, born in Cleveland in 1840; has been in China since 1888.

Rev. Dr. William S. Ament, superintendent of the Congregational mission at Peking; born at Owosso, Mich.; in China since 1877. His wife, Mrs. Mary A. Penfield Ament, and their two children are now in Owosso, Mich.

Rev. George Ritchie Davis, presiding elder of the Methodist church in the Peking district; born at Kingston, O., in 1847; in China since 1870; married Miss Marion Kane Brown, a missionary, in 1871, who, with their seven children, are in this country.

Rev. James H. Ingram, Congregationalist, born at Mansfield, O., in 1858; in China since 1887; father, Robert Ingram, lives in Vineland, N. J.

Mrs. George D. N. Lowry, formerly Miss Catherine Mullican, of Cincinnati, O., where her father now lives.

Lowry, infant son of Dr. and Mrs. George D. N. Lowry.

Miss Luella Miner, Congregationalist, born at Oberlin, O., in 1861; studied at Oberlin college; in China since 1887.

Miss Virginia C. Murdock, M. D., Congregationalist; born at Zanesville, O., in 1850; formerly lived in Chicago; in China since 1881.

Mrs. A. H. Smith, formerly Miss Emma Dickinson, Congregationalist; born near Zanesville, O., in 1849; Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have one of their sons in this country.

Rev. J. L. Whiting, Presbyterian; born in Rochester, N. Y., in 1835; in China since 1869; wife and daughter now in Wooster, O.

NOT A FORTUNE.

That Letter Simply Wanted to Know if Schepp Got a Fortune from England.

Several months ago a letter was received at the city police station from Germany, inquiring about a man named Schepp. The letter when translated by a local party left the impression that there was a fortune in Germany for Schepp.

It was nothing of the kind. The German parties had simply written here to find out if Schepp had received a fortune from England.

The Same Old Story.

"Didn't know it was loaded" caused the death of Roldo Boyd, a 15-year-old boy of Coshocton. He was showing a number of his friends that his revolver was empty and placing it against his temple snapped it, when it went off, killing him almost instantly.

SOME GREASE

Caused a Great Deal of Smoke Last Night and Fire Department Made a Run.

Last evening at 6:30 the grease in a frying pan at the Arcade restaurant caught fire, and from the amount of flame and smoke, people in the vicinity imagined the whole building was on fire.

A message was sent to the fire department, and in a remarkably short time the firemen responded, but the fire had been extinguished almost immediately, and their services were not needed.

A NEW UNION.

A Branch of the Retail Clerks Instituted at Rochester, Pa., Last Night.

Deputy Organizer J. E. Anderson, accompanied by D. M. McLane and Edward Larkins, returned from Rochester last night, where they on last evening organized a branch of the retail clerks' union.

The new local starts with a membership of 35, and the prospects are good for a very successful union in that place. Officers were installed and a pleasant time was had by the visitors.

THE PICNIC.

Warehouse Girls Entertained Their Friends at Columbian Park Yesterday.

The first annual picnic of the warehouse girls given at Columbian park yesterday was an immense success. Everybody who attended enjoyed themselves and returned home at a late hour last night.

The ball game between the shoe clerks and clothing clerks proved to be an easy thing for the shoe clerks, who won by a score of 12 to 5.

LEFT TODAY.

A Large Number of Persons Took in the Excursion to Niagara Falls.

A number of persons from this city took advantage of the excursion to Niagara Falls and among those who left this afternoon were:

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cripps, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Ansley, Mrs. R. L. Herbert and City Treasurer S. T. Herbert.

—Ernest Orr and Richard Manor returned to the city yesterday after a 15-day stay at Denver, Col.

PUBLIC FUNDS.

Can be Used by Officials of State Hospitals for Their Expenses Attending Official Meetings.

It will be remembered that the reason assigned for the small attendance at the recent meeting in Massillon of the officials of state hospitals, was that the expenses of the persons attending was not paid by the state. Ex-Governor Charles Foster, who was chairman of the conference, has since looked into the matter, and, upon the authority of the state auditor, he states that that official has not and will not rule that public funds cannot be used for this purpose. It is expected, therefore, that the October meeting will be well attended.

Rural Postal Rates.

Postmaster General Smith has issued the following order regarding the postal rates and the cancellation of stamps in the rural free delivery districts:

1. It is ordered that, beginning August 1, the drop letter, or 1-cent rate of postage, will not apply within rural free delivery limits. The 2-cent per ounce rate will be exacted within such delivery on all first-class mail except postal cards.

2. That the introduction of rural free delivery will not increase or otherwise modify the present rate of postage on second-class matter.

3. That the rural free delivery carriers will not bring to the postoffice mail matter collected by them which may be delivered on their routes before completing their trips.

4. That stamps on mail matter collected by rural free delivery carriers, including those on matter delivered en route, as named in section 3, will be cancelled by them and reported to the postmaster, who will derive the benefit of the cancellation if the office is fourth class.

5. That until suitable rubber cancelling stamps can be supplied by the department free delivery carriers will cancel the stamps with the indelible pencils furnished them for use in registered letters.

Salem Creditors Paid.

Clerk of Courts McNutt, as receiver in the case of Furman Gee vs. the Salem Church Organ company, has declared a first dividend of 55 per cent on all claims presented to him. About $25,000 will be distributed among the creditors, and a further dividend will be declared later.

GOVERNOR NASH.

Undeniably information says that Governor Nash will be in East Liverpool on August 15, the guest of Colonel John Taylor, and that the governor will be at the Township Line picnic. State Treasurer I. B. Cameron will accompany the governor on the trip.

WIFE BEATERS.

If ever Mayor Billy Davidson did a good thing, it was when he put $29 60 against the record of a wife beater. Pity it is that he could not have made it even heavier, and added imprisonment at hard labor for six months or a year. We have some noted wife beaters in East Liverpool, and they are just a little lower, in the estimation of true men, than a mangy yellow cur. No true man or woman should even recognize such miserable creatures.

TENTH REGIMENT.

The Pittsburg Post, in referring to the turning over of the old flag of the Tenth Pennsylvania infantry, U. S. volunteers, to Governor Stone, says that the present color sergeant, Harry Cundall, carried the flag all through the battles in which the Tenth participated in the Philippines. Cundall did nothing of the kind. Color Sergeant Harry Palmer carried the colors at the time of the battle of Malate, July 31 and August 1, 1898. The colors were left in camp that night by order of Colonel A. L. Hawkins, who led the reinforcements, under charge of Color Sergeant Harry Palmer, to the battle field, and did good and effective duty in that fight, the color guard, Harry Evans, of Ruffsedale, Westmoreland county, Pa., and Eddie Boyle, of Beaver Falls, Beaver county, Pa., were Nos. 1 and 2 in the first form of the reinforcements, and the writer knows that they did faithful service and good sharpshooting, special service for the occasion, assigned especially thereto by Colonel Hawkins. Further, the same color bearer and the same color guard took part in the battle and capture of Manila, and the colors of the Tenth Pennsylvania were 150 yards in advance of those of any other regiment in the army of occupation when General Greene sent a mounted courier dashing up to Colonel A. L. Hawkins with orders that the Tenth regiment should halt. Afterwards, the regulars and the Nebraska boys were permitted to go in front, as per the orders of General Greene, the Nebraska boys coming up from the left and rear of the Tenth regiment and passing them in a narrow alley way. We have nothing to say against Harry Cundall, as we believe he is all right personally and that he will not flinch in the hour of emergency. If fate carries the Tenth to China, he will have a good chance to show his colors.

THE END OF TOM POWELL'S

Troubles Is Not Yet—Arrested Today by Deputy Sheriff Stubbs, of Cadiz.

TAKEN TO HARRISON COUNTY

Charge Was Made by J. W. Henderson, of Scio, Who Bought a Horse.

M'LANE REFUSED TO TAKE BAIL

Thomas Powell was today arrested by Deputy Sheriff Stubbs, of Harrison county, and will be taken to Cadiz to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretense.

The charge was filed by J. W. Henderson, of Scio, to whom Powell sold a horse on which there was a chattel mortgage held by a man named Curran. The latter demanded his property and got it and now Henderson wants satisfaction.

Powell is the man who has figured in justice courts a number of times lately in various suits involving a wagon and several horses, which he sold to H. S. Rinehart.

After the deal had been made claims began to come in from all quarters, but Mr. Rinehart settled all the obligations some time ago and every one supposed the incident was closed. It now develops that Powell had no right to dispose of any of the property in his possession, and it will likely go hard with him when his case comes up in Harrison county.

An effort was made to have Powell admitted to bail in the court of Justice McLane, but the squire after consulting Acting Prosecutor Speaker, refused and Deputy Stubbs took his prisoner to Cadiz this afternoon.

FELIX M'KNIGHT

DIED LAST NIGHT AT HIS HOME IN PITTSBURG.

Deceased Was Very Well Known and Had a Number of Relatives Here.

Friends in this city received word this morning of the death of Felix McKnight in Pittsburg last evening.

Deceased was 51 years old and was well known in this city, where he has a number of relatives. Mr. McKnight was one of the most prominent members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the United States, having held the position of colonel of the order for 14 years and also that of national secretary for 20 years.

Deceased was a puddler by trade and was prominently identified with the Amalgamated association of Iron and Steel Workers for many years.

Thomas Cannon, of this city, a relative, left this afternoon to be present at the funeral. Mrs. Cannon has been at the bedside since Monday.

A requiem high mass will be celebrated at St. Agnes' church, Fifth avenue, at 9 o'clock Friday morning and the interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

The family have telegraphed to James Doherty, of New York, the highest officer of the A. O. O. H., and expect him to attend the funeral.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the members of the G. A. R., Carpenters' union and to our neighbors and friends for their kindness during our recent bereavement.

CITIZEN SPEAKS.

He Tells of the Demand for Some One Who Understands Landscape Gardening.

Editor News Review—I was glad to note that you called attention, some time since, to the need of a skillful landscape gardener in this community. Many of our well-to-do citizens have ample means to gratify their taste for rural or suburban life, and these are looking for choice sites or locations, with a view of taking up their residence there, along the lines of our street cars, or at points which contemplated lines will soon reach, notably along the line of the Calcutta or Lisbon roads. Any of our citizens who know of competent men in the art of ornamental gardening, should make the wants of this community known to the said artiste.

Revelation of Acute Pressure in London
Money Market—Helped by Our Buying War Bonds.

New York, Aug. 9.—The stock market Wednesday was even duller than Tuesday, and the movement of prices was trivial and insignificant without any important exception. The room traders sold stocks in the morning, impelled apparently by reports of the heavy volume of gold to be exported. Estimates were put out that the amount of shipments Wednesday and Thursday would mount up to over $7,000,000. When it was seen that the total would not exceed $5,300,000 the room shorts covered. The market closed practically lifeless near to Tuesday night's level. Tuesday's advancing tendency in United States Rubber was contested and that stock was quite active and feverish, ranging over 1 3-4 and closing at a net gain of 3-8. There was the usual professional dealing in Sugar and Brooklyn Transit, the latter suffering from the delay in the publication of the annual report, which has been prompted at various times. The large American subscriptions to the new British exchequer bonds continued to absorb a large amount of discussion and surmise in Wall street. As an evidence of the large resources of capital available to the country the incident was generally accepted as subject for national congratulation, but as an evidence of the acute pressure to which the London money market is being subjected and the possible results on the world at large of this condition it was not regarded as reassuring. It is evident from the public criticism in England of the large allotment made to the United States and the apologetic tone of the explanation to parliament by the chancellor of the exchequer that the policy adopted was forced by the many conditions which might almost be classed as embarrassed. The allotment to the United States of half the loan before subscriptions were received in England and the quick closing of the loan is in strong contrast to the effort made to discriminate in favor of small subscribers in the case of last April's "Khaki" loan. There is presumptive evidence of some special provision entered into with the "leading Anglo-American house in London," to which was allotted half of the issue to insure shipments of gold in payment. Today's shipments of gold to Paris show that that center is still in competition with London for the precious metal, and the piling up of reserves by the Bank of France is now said to amount to $200,000,000. The news of renewed attack on the legations in Peking, the progress of hostilities involved in the march on Peking, and the language of the queen's address in proroguing parliament all gave force to these considerations and contributed to the profound dullness of speculation not only in New York, but in all the great financial markets.

Bonds were neglected and irregular. Total sales, par value, $875,000. U. S. new 4s declined 3-8 and the 3s and old 4s 1-4 in the bid price.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—All markets dropped Wednesday from the lack of interest due to excessively warm weather. Wheat closed at a decline of 7-8c, corn closed 3-4@7-8c lower, oats 1-8@1-4c lower and provisions a shade to 10c lower.

THE END OF TOM POWELL'S

Troubles Is Not Yet—Arrested To-day by Deputy Sheriff Stubbs, of Cadiz.

TAKEN TO HARRISON COUNTY

Charge Was Made by J. W. Henderson, of Scio, Who Bought a Horse.

McLANE REFUSED TO TAKE BAIL

Thomas Powell was today arrested by Deputy Sheriff Stubbs, of Harrison county, and will be taken to Cadiz to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretense.

The charge was filed by J. W. Henderson, of Scio, to whom Powell sold a horse on which there was a chattel mortgage held by a man named Curran. The latter demanded his property and got it and now Henderson wants satisfaction.

Powell is the man who has figured in justice courts a number of times lately in various suits involving a wagon and several horses, which he sold to H. S. Rinehart.

After the deal had been made claims began to come in from all quarters, but Mr. Rinehart settled all the obligations some time ago and every one supposed the incident was closed. It now develops that Powell had no right to dispose of any of the property in his possession, and it will likely go hard with him when his case comes up in Harrison county.

An effort was made to have Powell admitted to bail in the court of Justice McLane, but the squire after consulting Acting Prosecutor Speaker, refused and Deputy Stubbs took his prisoner to Cadiz this afternoon.

FELIX M'KNIGHT

DIED LAST NIGHT AT HIS HOME IN PITTSBURG.

Deceased Was Very Well Known and Had a Number of Relatives Here.

Friends in this city received word this morning of the death of Felix McKnight in Pittsburg last evening.

Deceased was 51 years old and was well known in this city, where he has a number of relatives. Mr. McKnight was one of the most prominent members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the United States, having held the position of colonel of the order for 14 years and also that of national secretary for 20 years.

Deceased was a puddler by trade and was prominently identified with the Amalgamated association of Iron and Steel Workers for many years.

Thomas Cannon, of this city, a relative, left this afternoon to be present at the funeral. Mrs. Cannon has been at the bedside since Monday.

A requiem high mass will be celebrated at St. Agnes' church, Fifth avenue, at 9 o'clock Friday morning and the interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

The family have telegraphed to James Doherty, of New York, the highest officer of the A. O. O. H., and expect him to attend the funeral.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the members of the G. A. R., Carpenters' union and to our neighbors and friends for their kindness during our recent bereavement.

Indianapolis, Aug. 9.—The notification of William J. Bryan and Adlai E. Stevenson of their nomination by the Democrats at their recent Kansas City convention to the offices respectively of president and vice president of the United States was made the occasion of a demonstration with which the Democrats may be fairly said to have begun their national campaign.

The notification occurred in the Military park, a beautiful shaded tract of ground in the center of the city. The park contains probably 30 acres of ground, and it was well covered with people. In the vicinity of the speakers' stand the crowd was very dense, and the entire park was well filled. Probably a majority of them were from other portions of Indiana, while many also came from distant states. There was also a quite general gathering of the members of the Democratic national committee, while, of course, the members of the two committees appointed to make the official notifications were also present. The occasion was therefore regarded as of national importance. The ceremony was preceded by a parade over the principal streets of the city, which was participated in by a number of visiting and local Democratic clubs. These acted as an escort to the notification party, and the cavalcade was an imposing one. Five speeches were made, Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, adding a welcoming address to the notification speeches of Representative Richardson and Governor Thomas, and responses were made by Mr. Bryan and Mr. Stevenson.

The weather was hot, but toward the close of the ceremonies a slight breeze alleviated to some extent the suffering occasioned by the high temperature. At one time it appeared as if actual suffocation might be the result of the terrible crowding in front of the stand where the ceremonies took place and much personal discomfort, but beyond a few fainting attacks no evil resulted.

The platform on which the speeches were made was elevated about six feet above the park lawn, and upon it sat the candidates and their families and the members of the national committee and of the notification committees as well as a few invited guests. Mr. Bryan sat near the center of the stage, just to the left of Chairman Jones, who presided. Mrs. Bryan and William, Jr., occupied adjoining chairs. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson also sat in the same group, as did Mrs. Senator Jones, Congressman Richardson and Governor and Mrs. Thomas.

The meeting was called to order in a brief speech by Mayor Taggart, who introduced Senator Jones as permanent chairman of the meeting.

Senator Jones made no speech upon taking the chair, but confined his remarks to the simple introduction of the speakers to the audience.

Congressman James D. Richardson, of Tennessee, to whose lot as permanent chairman of the national convention, fell the duty of notifying Mr. Bryan of his nomination, made the first of the nomination addresses.

Probably no man ever made an important speech under greater difficulties. The sun was throwing its rays directly upon many of the auditors, and besides they were present to hear Mr. Bryan. In this crowd, where a hand once down could not be raised, and once raised could not be lowered, were old men, frail women and small children. Soon the mass began to sway back and forth through the efforts of those in the rear to get nearer the speakers. There were a few screams, more groans, and it became necessary to get some of the feeble people out of the crush. There were loud cries of "Cut it short!" "Give Bryan a chance!" "We can't stand it here!" and other signs of impatience.

For a time Mr. Richardson did not appear perturbed by this clamor, but when there appeared to be real danger of serious results he brought his remarks to a somewhat precipitate close, speaking for only about 15 minutes. Notwithstanding the general confusion Mr. Richardson was liberally applauded, especially when he spoke of

"Sulu slavery and oriental harems."

There was an immediate change of deportment on the part of the crowd when Mr. Bryan arose. He was introduced by Chairman Jones. A light breeze sprang up, bringing some relief to the overheated mass of humanity.

After applause the crowd quieted down and remained well behaved throughout the delivery of the speech. There were occasional cries of "Louder" when Mr. Bryan first began to speak, but these were offset by huzzas for the speaker. After a few contests of this kind the auditors made no further signs except to applaud the points of the speech.

Mr. Bryan read his speech, departing not from his manuscript except in a word of explanation at the beginning of his address. He was sitting immediately to the left of Senator Jones when he was presented by that gentleman. He arose promptly and was immediately recognized by the entire assemblage.

Mr. Bryan never appeared to better advantage. His face was slightly flushed, but his eye was clear and calm and his voice never more completely at his command. He was dressed in a black sack coat, which was loosely buttoned about the waist. A white shirt front and white necktie gave the appearance of coolness which comported well with the speaker's personal bearing. His voice was far-reaching and that he was heard at a great distance was made evident by the fact that people far out in the crowd listened apparently as intently as did those who sat on the platform.

Among the sentiments of the speech which were applauded with especial zest were those declaring that under existing circumstances "we dare not educate the Philippines lest they learn to read the Declaration of Independence and the constitution of the United States," "that we would never agree to change the glory of this country for that of all the empires," "that it is not necessary to own a people to trade with them," "and that the command of 'Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel' had no galling gun attachment."

There was also general cheering over the speaker's promise to convene congress immediately to remedy the Philippine situation if he were elected. No part of the address received the earnest commendation that was bestowed upon the peroration. This called out an outburst that was both tumultuous and prolonged.

Mr. Bryan spoke a few words extemporaneously in introducing his speech, all of which except the peroration was read from manuscript. The closing sentences were repeated from memory in a most effective manner. The extemporaneous introduction was as follows:

"I feel that I owe an apology or explanation to the people who are to listen, for the fact that I must read what pleasant to me and more agreeable to you to speak without notes, but I want to reach that larger constituency which we reach through the newspapers, for it is a thousand times as numerous as any crowd that could assemble here, and therefore in order that I may speak to all throughout the land I have committed to writing what I desire to say and will ask for your indulgence while I read my speech."

Mr. Bryan in the course of his speech advanced four points as the contentions of the defenders of imperialism as to the Philippines as follows:

First—That we must improve the present opportunity to become a world power and enter into international politics.

Second—That our commercial interests in the Philippine islands and in the orient make it necessary for us to hold the islands permanently.

Third—That the spread of the Christian religion will be facilitated by a colonial policy.

Fourth—That there is no honorable retreat from the position which the nation has taken.

The first argument is addressed to the nation's pride and the second to the nation's pocketbook. The third is intended for the church-member and the fourth for the partisan.

He said in part that it is a sufficient answer to the first argument to say that for more than a century this nation has been a world power.

As to the second, he said in part it is not necessary to own people in order to trade with them. We carry on trade today with every part of the world, and our commerce has expanded more rapidly than the commerce of any European empire. A harbor and coaling station in the Philippines would answer every trade and military necessity and such a concession could have been secured at any time without difficulty.

Farmers and laboring men have, as a rule, small incomes and under systems which place the tax upon consumption pay more than their fair share of the expenses of the government. Thus the very people who receive least benefit from imperialism will be injured most by the military burdens which accompany it.

As to the third he said in part, if what has been terms the "gunpowder gospel" were urged against the Philippines it would be a sufficient answer to say that a majority of the Philippines are now members of one branch of the Christian church, but the principle involved is one of much wider application and challenges serious consideration. We cannot approve of this doctrine in one place unless we are willing to apply it everywhere. If there is poison in the blood of the hand it will ultimately reach the heart. It is equally true that forcible Christianity, if planted under the American flag in the faraway orient, will sooner or later be transplanted upon American soil. * * * Let it be known that our missionaries are seeking souls instead of sovereignty; let it be known that instead of being the advance guard of conquering armies, they are going forth to help and to uplift. * * * and the welcome given to our missionaries will be more cordial than the welcome extended to the missionaries of any other nation.

Of the fourth he said in part: The argument, made by some, that it was unfortunate for the nation that it had anything to do with the Philippine islands, but that the naval victory at Manila made the permanent acquisition of those islands necessary is also unsound. We won a naval victory at Santiago, but that did not compel us to hold Cuba. The shedding of American blood in the Philippine islands does not make it imperative that we should retain possession forever. There is an easy, honest, honorable solution of the Philippine question. It is set forth in the Democratic platform and it is submitted with confidence to the American people. This plan I unreservedly endorse. If elected I shall convene congress in extraordinary session as soon as I am inaugurated and recommend an immediate declaration of the nation's purpose—first, to establish a stable form of government in the Philippine islands, just as we are now establishing a stable form of government in the island of Cuba; second, to give independence to the Philippines, just as we have promised to give independence to the Cubans; third, to protect the Philippines from outside interference while they work out their destiny, just as we have protected the republics of South and Central America, and are, by the Monroe doctrine, pledged to protect Cuba.

Mr. Bryan was followed by Governor C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, who introduced Mr. Stevenson. Mr. Thomas spoke only about 10 minutes. He received very general attention and was given frequent and generous applause.

Mr. Stevenson was apparently slightly nervous, as the time approached for him to take the stand, but he soon gained confidence as he proceeded. Mr. Bryan led the liberal applause which greeted the appearance of his fellow-candidate as he advanced to the front, and many points of the speech were liberally punctuated by a repetition of applause as the speaker proceeded. He read from manuscript, but held the majority of his audience to the end. Mr. Stevenson in the course of his speech reviewed the Democratic platform practically in detail, endorsing its principles. Mr. Stevenson closed amid liberal applause. Senator Jones then declared the meeting adjourned sine die.

HANNA WOULD'T STUMP.

Heath Failed to Induce the Chairman to Make Campaign Speeches—

Hanna Goes to Boston.

New York, Aug. 9.—Senator Mark Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee, left this city for Boston where he goes to look over the work of his sub-committee and examine the political situation in general. Chairman Hanna will return here on Saturday morning.

Today the national chairman will be the guest at luncheon of the Boston Commercial club and on Friday he will be entertained at dinner by a number of Bay state Republicans. Mr. Hanna announced that the advisory committee is now practically completed and that he would make known the names of the 18 members early next week.

Among the important callers at the national headquarters were Col. P. Huntington, H. M. Hanna, a brother to the Senator; Tams Bixby, chairman of the Republican state committee of Minnesota; former Governor Brown, of Rhode Island, and General Clarkson, of Iowa. Perry S. Heath, secretary of the national committee, left for Chicago. He expressed regret that he had been unable to persuade Chairman Hanna to take the stump.

A PROHIBITION TRAIN.

One Will Be Run Across the Continent, From Which Candidates Will Make Speeches.

New York, Aug. 9.—John G. Woolly and Henry B. Metcalf, respectively the candidates for president and vice president on the Prohibition ticket, will travel across the United States and back on a special Prohibition train. Plans for equipping the train with speakers and literature and a glee club were discussed at a recent meeting of the leaders.

The special will start from Chicago early in October, and Messrs. Woolly and Metcalf will be accompanied by Oliver Stewart, chairman of the Prohibition committee; Professor Samuel Dickie, executive chairman; Joshua A. Levering, of Boston, the presidential candidate in 1896; Hale Johnson, of Illinois, and others.

In the different states the candidates on the state prohibition tickets will join the train and make speeches.

PRaised BY GOV. STONE.

He and Others That Inspected the Guard Complimented Its Condition.

Mt. Gretna, Pa., Aug. 9.—The men of the Second brigade suffered greatly from the heat during inspection and many dropped out of the ranks exhausted. None, however, was seriously affected. The inspection was very satisfactory, the various regiments making a creditable showing. Governor Stone, Major General Miller and the inspectors expressed themselves as highly gratified. General John A. Wiley and staff, of the Second brigade, witnessed the review and inspection.

The Fifth, General Burchfield's regiment, was the first to take the field. Then came the Fourteenth, Colonel W. E. Thompson in command, which was followed by Colonel James E. Barnett's famous "Fighting Tenth." Immediately after the inspection of the Tenth the regiment was drawn up in line and the men stood at "present arms" while Colonel Barnett presented the battle-scarred flags to Governor Stone to be deposited in the flag room at the capitol at Harrisburg.

Later Governor Stone and Major General Miller attended the inspection of Colonel Willis J. Hulings' Sixteenth regiment and Eighteenth, Colonel Frank J. Rutledge commanding. This completed the examination of General Wiley's brigade. The hospital corps of the Second and Third brigades were inspected and displayed remarkable proficiency in the litter and ambulance drills.

CATHOLICS WHO ABSTAIN.

Opponents of the Liquor Traffic and Drinking Convened In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—The thirtieth annual convention of the Catholic total abstinence union of America, began here and will continue until Friday. About 300 delegates are in attendance from nearly every state in the union.

Previous to the business session solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated at the cathedral by Archbishop Ryan. The sermon was preached by Monsignor T. J. Conaty, rector of the Catholic university at Washington.

The convention decided to send a cablegram to the pope giving a summary of the work of the union during the 30 years of existence, and asking papal benediction. A committee on credentials was appointed.

FIRE DESTROYED PLANTS.

Shelby Tube and Boston Electroduct Burned—Union Drawn Steel Afire at Beaver Falls, Pa.

Beaver Falls, Aug. 9.—Fire which broke out in the works of the Shelby tube company totally destroyed that plant, spread to the factory of the Boston electroduct company and soon laid it in ashes. The firemen were powerless to stay the progress of the flames and later the mills of the Union drawn steel company were burning, with the chances largely in favor of the flames spreading to adjacent works. A conservative estimate placed the loss at $300,000.

Thousands Heard the Speeches of the Nebraskan and His Ticket Mate, Mr. Stevenson, Accepting Their Nominations. Richardson Cut His Speech Short.

Indianapolis, Aug. 9.—The notification of William J. Bryan and Adlai E. Mr. Bryan was followed by Governor C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, who introduced Mr. Stevenson. Mr. Thomas spoke only about 10 minutes. He received very general attention and was given frequent and generous applause.

Mr. Stevenson was apparently slightly nervous, as the time approached for him to take the stand, but he soon gained confidence as he proceeded. Mr. Bryan led the liberal applause which greeted the appearance of his fellow-candidate as he advanced to the front, and many points of the speech were liberally punctuated by a repetition of applause as the speaker proceeded. He read from manuscript, but held the majority of his audience to the end. Mr. Stevenson, in the course of his speech reviewed the Democratic platform practically in detail, endorsing its principles. Mr. Stevenson closed amid liberal applause. Senator Jones then declared the meeting adjourned sine die.

will travel across the United States and back on a special Prohibition train. Plans for equipping the train with speakers and literature and a glee club were discussed at a recent meeting of the leaders.

The special will start from Chicago early in October, and Messrs. Woolly and Metcalf will be accompanied by Oliver Stewart, chairman of the Prohibition committee; Professor Samuel Dickie, executive chairman; Joshua A. Levering, of Boston, the presidential candidate in 1896; Hale Johnson, of Illinois, and others.

In the different states the candidates on the state prohibition tickets will join the train and make speeches.

PRAISED BY GOV. STONE.

He and Others That Inspected the Guard Complimented Its Condition.

Mt. Gretna, Pa., Aug. 9.—The men of the Second brigade suffered greatly from the heat during inspection and many dropped out of the ranks exhausted. None, however, was seriously affected. The inspection was very satisfactory, the various regiments making a creditable showing. Governor Stone, Major General Miller and the inspectors expressed themselves as highly gratified. General John A. Wiley and staff, of the Second brigade, witnessed the review and inspection.

The Fifth, General Burchfield's regiment, was the first to take the field. Then came the Fourteenth, Colonel W. E. Thompson in command, which was followed by Colonel James E. Barnett's famous "Fighting Tenth." Immediately after the inspection of the Tenth the regiment was drawn up in line and the men stood at "present arms" while Colonel Barnett presented the battle-scarred flags to Governor Stone to be deposited in the flag room at the capitol at Harrisburg.

Later Governor Stone and Major General Miller attended the inspection of Colonel Willis J. Hulings' Sixteenth regiment and Eighteenth, Colonel Frank J. Rutledge commanding. This completed the examination of General Wiley's brigade. The hospital corps of the Second and Third brigades were inspected and displayed remarkable proficiency in the litter and ambulance drills.

CATHOLICS WHO ABSTAIN.

Opponents of the Liquor Traffic and Drinking Convened In Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—The thirtieth annual convention of the Catholic total abstinence union of America, began here and will continue until Friday. About 300 delegates are in attendance from nearly every state in the union.

Previous to the business session solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated at the cathedral by Archbishop Ryan. The sermon was preached by Monsignor T. J. Conaty, rector of the Catholic university at Washington.

The convention decided to send a cablegram to the pope giving a summary of the work of the union during the 30 years of existence, and asking papal benediction. A committee on credentials was appointed.

FIRE DESTROYED PLANTS.

Shelby Tube and Boston Electroduct Burned—Union Drawn Steel Affire at Beaver Falls, Pa.

Beaver Falls, Aug. 9.—Fire which broke out in the works of the Shelby tube company totally destroyed that plant, spread to the factory of the Boston electroduct company and soon laid it in ashes. The firemen were powerless to stay the progress of the flames and later the mills of the Union drawn steel company were burning, with the chances largely in favor of the flames spreading to adjacent works. A conservative estimate placed the loss at $300,000.

					A.M.	P.M.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

SAMUEL SULLIVAN COX.

Samuel Sullivan Cox was one of the imposing figures in Democratic politics in Ohio from 1852 to 1867, and afterward in the city of New York. He was born in Zanesville, Ohio, Sept. 30, 1824, and died in the city of New York, Sept. 10, 1889.

He graduated from Brown university in 1846, studied law, was admitted to the bar and began practice at Zanesville in 1849. In 1853 he removed to Columbus and became editor of the Ohio Statesman, in which position he displayed unusual literary ability. In 1855 he became secretary of legation at Lima, Peru, but returned to Ohio in 1856, and was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Twelfth district, Franklin, Licking and Pickaway counties. He was elected from the same district to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858, and to the Thirty-seventh in 1860.

In 1862, at the decennial apportionment of the state, he was placed in the Seventh district, made up of the counties of Franklin, Madison, Clark and Greene, which was regarded as safely Republican, but in 1862 it elected him to the Thirty-eighth. He was again a candidate for the Thirty-ninth in 1864, but was defeated by a few votes.

He removed from Ohio to New York in 1866 and formed a law partnership with Algernon Sidney Sullivan, which soon became one of the leading law firms of the metropolis. In 1868 the Democracy of his new district sent him to congress, where he remained almost continually the rest of his life. His only unsatisfied ambition was his failure to be elected speaker of the house of representatives, which he nearly attained on two or three different occasions.

He was a man of rare wit and humor, a brilliant lecturer and an orator of great force and originality. For a long period he was one of the regents of the Smithsonian Institute. He was a man of practical ideas and applied them in legislation. To him was most largely due the organization of the life-saving service, and increased compensation for letter carriers, and vacations without loss of pay. Mr. Cox traveled extensively in Europe and northern Africa, between 1880 and 1885. In 1885 he was appointed minister to Turkey by President Grover Cleveland.

He enjoyed a wide reputation as an author. Among his best known books were "The Buckeye Abroad," "Eight Years in Congress," "Free Land and Free Trade," "Three Decades of Legislation" and "Why We Laugh."

CYDNOR B. TOMPKINS.

Foremost among the lawyers of the Muskingum valley, at the beginning of the second half of the century, was Cydnor B. Tompkins of the Morgan county bar. He enjoyed a wide practice in that and adjoining counties, and he was most highly esteemed wherever he was known.

Brilliant and talented, he had a host of friends who finally induced him to enter politics, and in 1856 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Sixteenth district, Morgan, Washington and Muskingum counties, and in 1858 was re-elected from the same district to the Thirty-eighth.

He was descended from a distinguished Loudon county, Virginia, family, his mother being a Quakeress, and was born in Belmont county, Ohio, Nov. 8, 1810. He graduated from the Ohio university at Athens in 1835, studied law and was admitted to the bar in Zanesville in 1837. He died in the city of McConnelsville, July 21, 1862.

JOSEPH R. COCKERILL.

Colonel Joseph R. Cockerill was a native of Adams county, and was born the year 1818, and died in Ohio Oct. 23, 1875. He was the father of Colonel John A. Cockerill, the journalist. The elder Cockerill commanded the Seventieth Ohio Volunteer infantry in the civil war, and took a conspicuous part in the Battle of Shiloh, in which the younger appeared in the role of a drummer boy in repeated charges.

Joseph R. Cockerill represented Adams county in the house of the Fifty-fifth general assembly, 1852-1854; again in the Fifty-eighth, 1868-1870, of which his son was journal clerk, and also of the Fifty-ninth, 1870-1872. He was a Democratic leader in the councils of his party in the state.

In 1836 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Sixth district, Adams, Clermont, Highland and Brown counties, and served a single term.

LAWRENCE W. HALL.

Lawrence W. Hall was a man of local prominence in Crawford county, who had been intrusted with various local positions of trust and responsibility. He was elected to a single term in 1856, to the Thirty-fifth congress. From the Ninth district, comprising Crawford, Seneca, Sandusky, Ottawa, Hardin, Marion and Wyandot counties. He was born in Lake county, Ohio, in 1819, and died Jan. 26, 1863.

JOSEPH MILLER

Of Ross county served a single term in the national legislature. He was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress in 1856 from the Tenth district, composed of the counties of Ross, Pike, Jackson, Lawrence and Scioto. He was a highly respected citizen, but was not inclined to seek for political honors. He was born in Ohio about 1820. During the latter years of his life he served as United States judge in Nebraska Territory.

JOSEPH BURNS

Of Coshocton county, a gentleman held in high esteem by his neighbors, served a single term in congress, having been elected to the Thirty-fifth from the Fifteenth district, comprising the counties of Coshocton, Tuscarawas, Knox and Holmes. He was a Democrat. He was born in Waynesboro, Virginia, March 11, 1800, and died when past 75.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE OF GUERNSEY.

William Lawrence, a pioneer citizen of Guernsey county, a life-long Democrat, respected as highly by his political antagonists as by his political friends and associates, served in the house of the legislature in the Forty-second general assembly, 1843-1844, and in the senate of the Fifty-second, the Fifty-eighth and Sixty-seventh, representing the Nineteenth district, Guernsey and Monroe counties.

In 1856 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Seventeenth district, containing the counties of Guernsey, Belmont, Monroe and Noble.

JOHN A. GURLEY.

Rev John A. Gurley of Cincinnati was twice honored by his constituents as a congressman. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county, and re-elected from the same district in 1860 to the Thirty seventh. He was a gentleman of considerable prominence at his home. He was born in East Hartford Conn., Dec. 9, 1813, and died August 19, 1863, at Cincinnati, where he was editor of The Western Star, a religious paper.

WILLIAM ALLEN.

William Allen was a citizen of something more than local prominence in Darke county. He was elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fourth district, Darke, Miami, Shelby, Auglaize, Mercer and Allen counties, and re-elected in 1860 from the same district to the Thirty-seventh. He was born in Butler county, Ohio, August 13, 1827.

JAMES M. ASHLEY.

James M. Ashley, a Republican, was for many years a most prominent figure in state and national politics, possessing, as he did, a high order of ability, both as an orator and a thinker. He was born in the state of Pennsylvania, Nov. 14, and lived till he passed the three-quarter century mark.

He located at Toledo, where he entered the drug business in 1851, but his stock being destroyed by fire, with no insurance, he abandoned the business. Having previously read law and being already admitted to the bar, he began the practice and was eminently successful in it. In his later years he was interested in many railway corporations and enterprises, and displayed a high order of ability in that line.

He was a Whig and then a Republican. He was a delegate to the first Republican national convention, which nominated General John C. Fremont for president in 1856. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fifth district, comprising Lucas, Wood, Van Wert, Paulding, Putnam, Henry, Defiance, Williams and Fulton, and was re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district.

In 1862 he was chosen from the Tenth district, made up of the counties of Lucas, Wood, Henry, Putnam, Paulding, Defiance, Fulton and Williams, and was re-elected from the same district in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth, in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth and in 1866 to the Fortieth. He was one of the managers on the part of the house of representatives in the impeachment proceedings against President Andrew Johnson.

JOHN CAREY

John Carey was one of the substantial citizens of Wyandot county, and took a leading part in pushing the various enterprises that developed its agricultural greatness. He was elected as a member of the house in the Twenty-seventh general assembly, and was also a member of the same body in the Thirty-fifth.

He was sent to congress for a single term, having been elected to the Thirty-sixth in 1858 from the Ninth district, Wyandot, Hardin, Marion, Crawford, Seneca, Sandusky and Ottawa counties. He was born in Monongahela county, Virginia, April 5, 1792, and lived to an advanced age.

WILLIAM HOWARD.

William Howard of Clermont county represented that county and Brown in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth general assemblies, as a member of the senate, from 1849 to 1851. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Sixth district, made up of Clermont, Brown, Highland and Adams counties, serving but a single term. He was a native of Virginia and was born in the year 1800.

CAREY A. TRIMBLE.

Carey A. Trimble of Chillicothe, who was for years a leading and highly respected citizen of Ross county, was twice a member of the national house. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Tenth district, Ross, Pike, Jackson, Scioto and Lawrence counties, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district. He was a physician by profession and was the son of Governor Trimble, and born in Hillsboro, Ohio, April 13, 1813.

CHARLES D. MARTIN.

Judge Charles D. Martin of Lancaster was one of the brightest lights in the celebrated bar of Fairfield county, and enjoyed a wide practice, not only in Fairfield but in adjoining counties, and in the supreme court of the state.

His career in congress, however, was brief, consisting of but a single term. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858, over Valentine B. Horton, in the Eleventh district, Fairfield, Hocking, Perry, Athens, Vinton and Meigs, and defeated by him in 1860.

From 1883 to 1886 he was a member of the supreme court commission, a supplementary supreme court, to aid the regular body in the disposal of accumulated business, and was appointed by the governor. His decisions were models of clearness and precision, and many of them have continued as precedents.

He was born in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, August 5, 1829, and was educated in the public schools of Mt. Vernon and at Kenyon college. He was admitted to the bar in September, 1850, and entered upon the practice of his profession at Lancaster, where, in 1899 he is the Nestor of the Fairfield county bar.

HARRISON G. BLAKE

No man stood higher at the bar, nor in the estimation of the people of Medina county and in northeastern Ohio, than Harrison G. Blake of Medina. He was of Connecticut lineage, was born in 1826, and died in 1876. He was a member of the house of representatives during the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth general assemblies, 1846-1848, and was a member of the senate in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth, and speaker of that body in 1849-1850.

In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Fourteenth district, Medina, Lorain, Wayne and Ashland counties, and was re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district. He was an able legislator, as he was a brilliant lawyer.

WILLIAM HELMICK.

William Helmick was a highly respected citizen of Tuscarawas county, devoted to the pursuits of private life and caring little for the allurements of office. He served a single term in congress and that was sufficient to sate any ambitions that he might have possessed. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fifteenth district, composed of Tuscarawas, Coshocton, Knox and Holmes counties. He was born in Jefferson county, Ohio Sept 6 1817.

SIDNEY EDGERTON

For more than half a century Sidney Edgerton was one of the leading citizens of Summit county, and while he had little inclination toward public or official life, he was intrusted with many local positions of trust and responsibility.

He was born in Cazenovia, Madison county, New York, August 17, 1818. He was educated in the common schools, worked for some years as a carpenter, and then engaged in teaching. He graduated from the Cincinnati Law school, admitted to the bar and in 1844 located at Akron, where he built up a large law practice. From 1852 to 1856 he was prosecuting attorney of Summit county. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress, as a Republican, from the Eighteenth district, Summit, Portage and Stark counties, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district.

In 1863 President Lincoln appointed him chief justice of Idaho Territory, and he filled the position with marked ability. In 1864 the president appointed him governor of Montana Territory, which office he held until 1867, when he resigned and resumed the practice of his profession at Akron, declining to accept further official preferment.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

SAMUEL SULLIVAN COX.

Samuel Sullivan Cox was one of the imposing figures in Democratic politics in Ohio from 1852 to 1867, and afterward in the city of New York. He was born in Zanesville, Ohio, Sept. 30, 1824, and died in the city of New York, Sept. 10, 1889.

He graduated from Brown university in 1846, studied law, was admitted to the bar and began practice at Zanesville in 1849. In 1853 he removed to Columbus and became editor of the Ohio Statesman, in which position he displayed unusual literary ability. In 1855 he became secretary of legation at Lima, Peru, but returned to Ohio in 1856, and was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Twelfth district, Franklin, Licking and Pickaway counties. He was elected from the same district to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858, and to the Thirty-seventh in 1860.

In 1862, at the decennial apportionment of the state, he was placed in the Seventh district, made up of the counties of Franklin, Madison, Clark and Greene, which was regarded as safely Republican, but in 1862 it elected him to the Thirty-eighth. He was again a candidate for the Thirty-ninth in 1864, but was defeated by a few votes.

He removed from Ohio to New York in 1866 and formed a law partnership with Algernon Sidney Sullivan, which soon became one of the leading law firms of the metropolis. In 1868 the Democracy of his new district sent him to congress, where he remained almost continually the rest of his life. His only unsatisfied ambition was his failure to be elected speaker of the house of representatives, which he nearly attained on two or three different occasions.

He was a man of rare wit and humor, a brilliant lecturer and an orator of great force and originality. For a long period he was one of the regents of the Smithsonian Institute. He was a man of practical ideas and applied them in legislation. To him was most largely due the organization of the life-saving service, and increased compensation for letter carriers, and vacations without loss of pay. Mr. Cox traveled extensively in Europe and northern Africa, between 1880 and 1885. In 1885 he was appointed minister to Turkey by President Grover Cleveland.

He enjoyed a wide reputation as an author. Among his best known books were "The Buckeye Abroad," "Eight Years in Congress," "Free Land and Free Trade," "Three Decades of Legislation" and "Why We Laugh."

CYDOR B. TOMPKINS.

Foremost among the lawyers of the Muskingum valley, at the beginning of the second half of the century, was Cydnor B. Tompkins of the Morgan county bar. He enjoyed a wide practice in that and adjoining counties, and he was most highly esteemed wherever he was known.

Brilliant and talented, he had a host of friends who finally induced him to enter politics, and in 1856 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Sixteenth district, Morgan, Washington and Muskingum counties, and in 1858 was re-elected from the same district to the Thirty-eighth.

He was descended from a distinguished Loudon county, Virginia, family, his mother being a Quakeress, and was born in Belmont county, Ohio, Nov. 8, 1810. He graduated from the Ohio university at Athens in 1835, studied law and was admitted to the bar in Zanesville in 1837. He died in the city of McConnelsville, July 21, 1862.

JOSEPH R. COCKERILL.

Colonel Joseph R. Cockerill was a native of Adams county, and was born the year 1818, and died in Ohio Oct. 23, 1875. He was the father of Colonel John A. Cockerill, the journalist. The elder Cockerill commanded the Seventeenth Ohio Volunteer infantry in the civil war, and took a conspicuous part in the Battle of Shiloh, in which the younger appeared in the role of a drummer boy in repeated charges.

Joseph R. Cockerill represented Adams county in the house of the Fifty-fifth general assembly, 1852-1854; again in the Fifty-eighth, 1863-1870, of which his son was journal clerk, and also of the Fifty-ninth, 1870-1872. He was a Democratic leader in the councils of his party in the state.

In 1836 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Sixth district, Adams, Clermont, Highland and Brown counties, and served a single term.

LAWRENCE W. HALL.

Lawrence W. Hall was a man of local prominence in Crawford county, who had been intrusted with various local positions of trust and responsibility. He was elected to a single term in 1856, to the Thirty-fifth congress, from the Ninth district, comprising Crawford, Seneca, Sandusky, Ottawa, Hardin, Marion and Wyandot counties. He was born in Lake county, Ohio, in 1819, and died Jan. 26, 1863.

JOSEPH MILLER

Of Ross county served a single term in the national legislature. He was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress in 1856 from the Tenth district, composed of the counties of Ross, Pike, Jackson, Lawrence and Scioto. He was a highly respected citizen, but was not inclined to seek for political honors. He was born in Ohio about 1820. During the latter years of his life he served as United States judge in Nebraska Territory.

JOSEPH BURNS

Of Coshocton county, a gentleman held in high esteem by his neighbors, served a single term in congress, having been elected to the Thirty-fifth from the Fifteenth district, comprising the counties of Coshocton, Tuscarawas, Knox and Holmes. He was a Democrat. He was born in Waynesboro, Virginia, March 11, 1800, and died when past 75.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE OF GUERNSEY.

William Lawrence, a pioneer citizen of Guernsey county, a life-long Democrat, respected as highly by his political antagonists as by his political friends and associates, served in the house of the legislature in the Forty-second general assembly, 1843-1844, and in the senate of the Fifty-second, the Fifty-eighth and Sixty-seventh, representing the Nineteenth district, Guernsey and Monroe counties.

In 1856 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Seventeenth district, containing the counties of Guernsey, Belmont, Monroe and Noble.

JOHN A. GURLEY.

Rev John A. Gurley of Cincinnati was twice honored by his constituents as a congressman. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county, and re-elected from the same district in 1860 to the Thirty-seventh. He was a gentleman of considerable prominence at his home. He was born in East Hartford, Conn., Dec. 9, 1813, and died August 19, 1863, at Cincinnati, where he was editor of The Western Star, a religious paper.

WILLIAM ALLEN.

William Allen was a citizen of something more than local prominence in Darke county. He was elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fourth district, Darke, Miami, Shelby, Auglaize, Mercer and Allen counties, and re-elected in 1860 from the same district to the Thirty-seventh. He was born in Butler county, Ohio, August 13, 1827.

JAMES M. ASHLEY.

James M. Ashley, a Republican, was for many years a most prominent figure in state and national politics, possessing, as he did, a high order of ability, both as an orator and a thinker. He was born in the state of Pennsylvania, Nov. 14, and lived till he passed the three-quarter century mark.

He located at Toledo, where he entered the drug business in 1851, but his stock being destroyed by fire, with no insurance, he abandoned the business. Having previously read law and being already admitted to the bar, he began the practice and was eminently successful in it. In his later years he was interested in many railway corporations and enterprises, and displayed a high order of ability in that line.

He was a Whig and then a Republican. He was a delegate to the first Republican national convention, which nominated General John C. Fremont for president in 1856. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fifth district, comprising Lucas, Wood, Van Wert, Paulding, Putnam, Henry, Defiance, Williams and Fulton, and was re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district.

In 1862 he was chosen from the Tenth district, made up of the counties of Lucas, Wood, Henry, Putnam, Paulding, Defiance, Fulton and Williams, and was re-elected from the same district in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth, in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth and in 1866 to the Fortieth. He was one of the managers on the part of the house of representatives in the impeachment proceedings against President Andrew Johnson.

JOHN CAREY

John Carey was one of the substantial citizens of Wyandot county, and took a leading part in pushing the various enterprises that developed its agricultural greatness. He was elected as a member of the house in the Twenty-seventh general assembly, and was also a member of the same body in the Thirty-fifth.

He was sent to congress for a single term, having been elected to the Thirty-sixth in 1858 from the Ninth district, Wyandot, Hardin, Marion, Crawford, Seneca, Sandusky and Ottawa counties. He was born in Monongahela county, Virginia, April 5, 1792, and lived to an advanced age.

WILLIAM HOWARD.

William Howard of Clermont county represented that county and Brown in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth general assemblies, as a member of the senate, from 1849 to 1851. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Sixth district, made up of Clermont, Brown, Highland and Adams counties, serving but a single term. He was a native of Virginia and was born in the year 1800.

CAREY A. TRIMBLE.

Carey A. Trimble of Chillicothe, who was for years a leading and highly respected citizen of Ross county, was twice a member of the national house. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Tenth district, Ross, Pike, Jackson, Scioto and Lawrence counties, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district. He was a physician by profession and was the son of Governor Trimble, and born in Hillsboro, Ohio, April 13, 1813.

CHARLES D. MARTIN.

Judge Charles D. Martin of Lancaster was one of the brightest lights in the celebrated bar of Fairfield county, and enjoyed a wide practice, not only in Fairfield but in adjoining counties, and in the supreme court of the state.

His career in congress, however, was brief, consisting of but a single term. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858, over Valentine B. Horton, in the Eleventh district, Fairfield, Hocking, Perry, Athens, Vinton and Meigs, and defeated by him in 1860.

From 1883 to 1886 he was a member of the supreme court commission, a supplementary supreme court, to aid the regular body in the disposal of accumulated business, and was appointed by the governor. His decisions were models of clearness and precision, and many of them have continued as precedents.

He was born in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, August 5, 1829, and was educated in the public schools of Mt. Vernon and at Kenyon college. He was admitted to the bar in September, 1850, and entered upon the practice of his profession at Lancaster, where, in 1899 he is the Nestor of the Fairfield county bar.

HARRISON G. BLAKE

No man stood higher at the bar, nor in the estimation of the people of Medina county and in northeastern Ohio, than Harrison G. Blake of Medina. He was of Connecticut lineage, was born in 1826, and died in 1876. He was a member of the house of representatives during the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth general assemblies, 1846-1848, and was a member of the senate in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth, and speaker of that body in 1849-1850.

In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Fourteenth district, Medina, Lorain, Wayne and Ashland counties, and was re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district. He was an able legislator, as he was a brilliant lawyer.

WILLIAM HELMICK.

William Helmick was a highly respected citizen of Tuscarawas county, devoted to the pursuits of private life and caring little for the allurements of office. He served a single term in congress and that was sufficient to sate any ambitions that he might have possessed. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fifteenth district, composed of Tuscarawas, Coshocton, Knox and Holmes counties. He was born in Jefferson county, Ohio Sept 6 1817.

SIDNEY EDGERTON

For more than half a century Sidney Edgerton was one of the leading citizens of Summit county, and while he had little inclination toward public or official life, he was intrusted with many local positions of trust and responsibility.

He was born in Cazenovia, Madison county, New York, August 17, 1818. He was educated in the common schools, worked for some years as a carpenter, and then engaged in teaching. No man stood higher at the bar, nor in the estimation of the people of Medina county and in northeastern Ohio, than Harrison G. Blake of Medina. He was of Connecticut lineage, was born in 1826, and died in 1876. He was a member of the house of representatives during the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth general assemblies, 1846-1848, and was a member of the senate in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth, and speaker of that body in 1849-1850.

In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Fourteenth district, Medina, Lorain, Wayne and Ashland counties, and was re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district. He was an able legislator, as he was a brilliant lawyer.

WILLIAM HELMICK.

William Helmick was a highly respected citizen of Tuscarawas county, devoted to the pursuits of private life and caring little for the allurements of office. He served a single term in congress and that was sufficient to sate any ambitions that he might have possessed. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fifteenth district, composed of Tuscarawas, Coshocton, Knox and Holmes counties. He was born in Jefferson county, Ohio Sept. 6, 1817.

SIDNEY EDGERTON

For more than half a century Sidney Edgerton was one of the leading citizens of Summit county, and while he had little inclination toward public or official life, he was intrusted with many local positions of trust and responsibility.

He was born in Cazenovia, Madison county, New York, August 17, 1818. He was educated in the common schools, worked for some years as a carpenter, and then engaged in teaching. He graduated from the Cincinnati Law school admitted to the bar and in 1844 located at Akron, where he built up a large law practice. From 1852 to 1856 he was prosecuting attorney of Summit county. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress, as a Republican, from the Eighteenth district, Summit, Portage and Stark counties, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district.

In 1863 President Lincoln appointed him chief justice of Idaho Territory, and he filled the position with marked ability. In 1864 the president appointed him governor of Montana Territory, which office he held until 1867, when he resigned and resumed the practice of his profession at Akron, declining to accept further official preferment.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Scio college is picnicking today at Rock Springs.

The Wellsville and local bowlers will play a match game tonight.

Rev. Jason Manley, well known here, is the guest of relatives in this city.

Trades council will meet next Wednesday night and hear reports of committees.

There were 19 cars loaded at the outbound platform of the freight station yesterday.

Wheeling consumed 11,000,000 gallons of water last month, or 280 gallons to each person.

Remus Shenkle, who had several ribs broken some time ago in a runaway accident, is able to be out.

The United Presbyterian church reunion at Conneaut Lake today was attended by 50 people from this place.

Business at the office of the township trustees is again slow and the officials have but few applications for aid.

A number of men under William Welch have been making improvements on Shady avenue and that street will soon be in good shape for travel.

Thomas McCann left at noon yesterday for New Martinsville, W. Va., to attend the funeral of his sister, Miss Cora McCann, who died there Tuesday evening.

The story floating that East Liverpool will have a football team this year seems to be without foundation. An eleven will probably be organized, but it will consist of local men.

Joseph H. Heckathorn and Miss Grace Andrews were united in marriage last evening at 7 o'clock by Dr. Clark Crawford at the residence of the bride's parents, 394 Calcutta road.

Hon. P. M. Ashford, of Washington; Henry Nixon, of Salineville, and J. N. Hanley, of East Liverpool, are in Lisbon today attending the meeting of the Republican county executive committee.

The picnic given yesterday at Rock Springs by the Sunday schools of the West End and Northside Presbyterian chapels was well attended and the day in the park was enjoyed by all who attended.

Almost a year ago council decided to wash the streets and the commissioner was instructed to do the work and keep an accurate account of what it cost to do the work. The streets were washed once or twice and then the work ceased.

A very pretty and quiet home wedding took place last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Eaton, when their only daughter, Elva, was united in marriage to Charles Barnhart. The bride was beautifully and tastefully attired in white organdie trimmed in lace and ribbon and carried white carnations. The groom was dressed in evening dress. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Clark Crawford and the happy couple were escorted by their many friends to their own home on Sixth street. A superb lunch was served to the wedding party. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents, and the many friends of the contracting parties wish them much happiness.

FEAR FOR MINISTERS.

Grave Apprehension Among Government Officials.

CHINA TO BE HELD TO ACCOUNT.

Will Be Made to Settle for Any Injury to American Interests in the Present Crisis — Problem of Relief Worrying the Administration.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The gravest apprehensions are felt here in official circles for the safety of the imprisoned ministers in Peking. The alleged statement of Li Hung Chang that it is absolutely impossible for the allies to enter Peking to escort the ministers to Tien Tsin adds greatly to the seriousness of the situation. It clearly implies the purpose of the Chinese government to resist the advance movement of the allied forces to the full extent of its power, coupled with the further implication that further hostile demonstrations on the part of the allies may jeopardize the lives of the ministers.

So far as known there is no present purpose of calling a halt in the allied movement against Peking. It is acknowledged that the relief column is not strong enough to maintain war against the Chinese kingdom for any great length of time, but heavy reinforcements are en route to China.

Their arrival on the scene may alter the situation entirely and bring the obstinate orientals to their senses.

The Chinese will be held to a strict accountability for any injury that may be sustained by American interests in the present crisis. What should be done for the immediate relief of the ministers is the problem now confronting the administration and is the subject of anxious conferences between the officials in this city and telegraphic correspondence with the president at Canton and the secretary of state at Sunapee, N. Y.

Acting Secretary Adey received a cable message from Consul Goodnow at Shanghai, giving information in his possession in regard to the situation in China, including the operations of the allied forces engaged in the advance on Peking. It was referred to the secretary of war and was not made public.

ALL SAFE ON AUG. 3. IN BRITISH LEGATION.

Minister MacDonald Sent a Message—
Total Killed 60 and Wounded
110 Under Rifle Fire.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—In the house of commons Mr. Broderick, parliamentary secretary for the foreign office read a telegram from Sir Claude MacDonald, British minister to China, received in cipher at the foreign office Aug. 9. The dispatch was in reply to a government message and bore date of Peking, Aug. 3. It was as follows:

"I have today received your cipher telegram forwarded to me by the Chinese minister. The shell and cannon fire ceased on July 16, but the rifle fire has continued from the Chinese positions held by government troops and Boxers intermittently ever since. The casualties since then have been slight. Except one private of marines, all the wounded are doing well. The rest of the British in the legation are well, including the whole garrison.

"The total of killed is 60 and of wounded 110. We have over 200 women and children refugees in the legation. The Chinese government has refused transmission to telegrams in cipher until now."

"Mr. Broderick also read the following dispatch from Admiral Seymour, filed at Che Foo, Aug. 6:

"The allies, about 12,000 strong attacked the Chinese entrenched position at Hsiku, about two miles outside Tien Tsin, early this morning. The Chinese were driven out and retired northward, pursued by the allies, who occupied Peitsang. Transports followed up the troops by road and river. The advance upon Peking has been begun."

MESSAGES CAN BE SENT.

An Imperial Edict Allowing the Privilege to Ministers Communicated to Minister Wu.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Minister Wu received an edict issued August 2, in which the Chinese government permits the powers to hold open and free communication with their ministers. This includes the sending of cipher messages.

The edict also said in part: "Throughout the disturbances recently caused by our subjects on account of Christian missions, which have resulted in a conflict of forces, it has been found necessary to afford protection to all the foreign ministers in Peking. On repeated occasions the Tsung Li Yamen sent notes inquiring after their welfare. And as Peking has not yet been restored to order and precautionary measures may not secure absolute safety, the foreign ministers are being consulted as to the proposed plan of detaching troops to escort them safely to Tien Tsin for temporary shelter, so that they may be free from apprehensive anxiety or fear.

"We hereby command Yung Lu to appoint as a preliminary step trustworthy high civil and military officials, who, together with reliable and efficient troops, shall, at such time as the foreign ministers may agree upon, for leaving Peking, escort and protect them throughout their journey. Should lawless characters manifest evil designs upon the ministers or attempt to rob them or in any way create trouble, they (the high officials) shall at once repress them without fail."

Aguinaldo May Surrender.

New York, Aug. 6.—A Hongkong special to The World said that General MacArthur was negotiating for the surrender of Aguinaldo, and it is believed that the Philippine leader will surrender within the next week.

A NOTE TO VICEROYS.

United States Government Sends One Barring Closely On An Ultimatum in Character.

Washington, Aug. 9.—As a result of a conference between the president, Acting Secretary of State Adey, Secretary Root and General Corbin, a cablegram was sent early to Consul General Goodnow, including a copy of the dispatch from Minister Conger and advising him of the situation as it is understood here. He was directed to communicate this to Earl Li Hung Chang, to Sheng and to such viceroys as can transmit it to whatever government there is in the Chinese empire. This cable contained what is said to be a very emphatic statement of the position of this government and saying that action is immediately necessary. While it is not strictly speaking an ultimatum, it is very close it.

A REPLY TO CONGER.

Advised Him of Approach of Relief Column—Exhorts Him to Be Cheerful.

Washington, Aug. 9.—A reply has been sent to Minister Conger by the state department to the message received from him. It advises him of the approach of the relief column and exhorts him to be of good cheer. The dispatch was sent direct to Minister Conger at Peking and a duplicate of it to Consul General Goodnow at Shanghai. Goodnow was directed to spare no pains or expense to get the message to Minister Conger.

WALDERSEE TO COMMAND.

German Foreign Office Does Not Say So, But Some Newspapers So Declared.

London, Aug. 9.—The report of the appointment of Field Marshal Count von Waldersee as commander in chief of the international force meets with general approval.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—The German foreign office, while admitting that Waldersee has been appointed commander of the German force in China, does not say he is to command the international forces, but some of the German papers so declare.

Acting Secretary Adee received a cable message from Consul Goodnow at Shanghai, giving information in his possession in regard to the situation in China, including the operations of the allied forces engaged in the advance on Peking. It was referred to the secretary of war and was not made public.

ALL SAFE ON AUG. 3. IN BRITISH LEGATION.

Minister MacDonald Sent a Message—Total Killed 60 and Wounded 110 Under Rifle Fire.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—In the house of commons Mr. Broderick, parliamentary secretary for the foreign office read a telegram from Sir Claude MacDonald, British minister to China, received in cipher at the foreign office Aug. 9. The dispatch was in reply to a government message and bore date of Peking, Aug. 3. It was as follows:

"I have today received your cipher telegram forwarded to me by the Chinese minister. The shell and cannon fire ceased on July 16, but the rifle fire has continued from the Chinese positions held by government troops and Boxers intermittently ever since. The casualties since then have been slight. Except one private of marines, all the wounded are doing well. The rest of the British in the legation are well, including the whole garrison.

"The total of killed is 60 and of wounded 110. We have over 200 women and children refugees in the legation. The Chinese government has refused transmission to telegrams in cipher until now."

"Mr. Broderick also read the following dispatch from Admiral Seymour, filed at Che Foo, Aug. 6:

"The allies, about 12,000 strong attacked the Chinese entrenched position at Hsiku, about two miles outside Tien Tsin, early this morning. The Chinese were driven out and retired northward, pursued by the allies, who occupied Peitsang. Transports followed up the troops by road and river. The advance upon Peking has been begun."

MESSAGES CAN BE SENT.

An Imperial Edict Allowing the Privilege to Ministers Communicated to Minister Wu.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Minister Wu received an edict issued August 2, in which the Chinese government permits the powers to hold open and free communication with their ministers. This includes the sending of cipher messages.

The edict also said in part: "Throughout the disturbances recently caused by our subjects on account of Christian missions, which have resulted in a conflict of forces, it has been found necessary to afford protection to all the foreign ministers in Peking. On repeated occasions the Tsung Li Yamen sent notes inquiring after their welfare. And as Peking has not yet been restored to order and precautionary measures may not secure absolute safety, the foreign ministers are being consulted as to the proposed plan of detailing troops to escort them safely to Tien Tsin for temporary shelter, so that they may be free from apprehensive anxiety or fear.

"We hereby command Yung Lu to appoint as a preliminary step trustworthy high civil and military officials, who, together with reliable and efficient troops, shall, at such time as the foreign ministers may agree upon, for leaving Peking, escort and protect them throughout their journey. Should lawless characters manifest evil designs upon the ministers or attempt to rob them or in any way create trouble, they (the high officials) shall at once repress them without fail."

Aguinaldo May Surrender.

New York, Aug. 6.—A Hongkong special to The World said that General MacArthur was negotiating for the surrender of Aguinaldo, and it is believed that the Philippine leader will surrender within the next week.

A NOTE TO VICEROYS.

United States Government Sends One Bordering Closely On An Ultimatum in Character.

Washington, Aug. 9.—As a result of a conference between the president, Acting Secretary of State Adee, Secretary Root and General Corbin, a cablegram was sent early to Consul General Goodnow, including a copy of the dispatch from Minister Conger and advising him of the situation as it is understood here. He was directed to communicate this to Earl Li Hung Chang, to Sheng and to such viceroys as can transmit it to whatever government there is in the Chinese empire. This cable contained what is said to be a very emphatic statement of the position of this government and saying that action is immediately necessary. While it is not strictly speaking an ultimatum, it is very close to it.

A REPLY TO CONGER.

Advised Him of Approach of Relief Column—Exhorts Him to Be Cheerful.

Washington, Aug. 9.—A reply has been sent to Minister Conger by the state department to the message received from him. It advises him of the approach of the relief column and exhorts him to be of good cheer. The dispatch was sent direct to Minister Conger at Peking and a duplicate of it to Consul General Goodnow at Shanghai. Goodnow was directed to spare no pains or expense to get the message to Minister Conger.

WALDERSEE TO COMMAND.

German Foreign Office Does Not Say So, But Some Newspapers So Declared.

London, Aug. 9.—The report of the appointment of Field Marshal Count von Waldersee as commander in chief of the international force meets with general approval.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—The German foreign office, while admitting that Waldersee has been appointed commander of the German force in China, does not say he is to command the international forces, but some of the German papers so declare.

TWO CENTS

WINE ROOMS ON THE SIDE

A Gentleman Conversant With the True State of Affairs Tells His Story.

WORSE THAN THE SALOON

He Speaks of the Evils Which Result From the side Room.

HE DESIGNATES THE PLACES

A few days since, the writer made mention of side rooms connected with saloons in this city, and of the bad effects resulting therefrom, asserting that such dens of evil surely do exist in East Liverpool, and that many persons are conversant with the fact. Yesterday, in the presence of two reliable and trustworthy witnesses, a young man of this city thoroughly posted in every detail of sporting life, said:

"The side or wine rooms, or club rooms, or side issues of saloons in this city are doing more harm than are the saloons proper. I have named to you the proprietors of saloons who run these side rooms, and I am speaking from actual personal knowledge. Men and women come together for what they term a free and easy and grand old time, and the way they carry on at times is an outrage upon common decency. Women are attracted to these rooms by the offer of the taste (a mere taste, you know) of a rare vintage of the juice of the grape, a delicious palate tickler, just received from a distant or foreign port. They finally yield to the temptation, taste and taste again, and before many months pass they are regular wine tipplers, and can, in an emergency, get outside a good, stiff horn of something much stronger than light wines. It is now only a question of time until they step down from the pedestal of honest and true womanhood, their ruin accomplished premeditatedly by devils in human form. Why, sir, I could give you, were I so disposed, the names of some men and women who assemble in these rooms; and, well as you know me, you would pronounce me a liar and a sensationalist, and would not believe that such things exist in our midst unless you could yourself become an eye witness. I do not say that, as a people, we are more wicked and depraved than are the inhabitants of other cities of like size; but I do believe that we have more cases of the Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde stripe to the square foot, than any other territory or location in the nation, and I have traveled all over the states in the pursuit of my business. On the other hand, we have a clean citizenship which can compare favorably with the best in the nation. My object in giving you the pointers I have is for the purpose of showing you that there are some places in your city even more damnable and more to be feared and dreaded than the wide open saloon; and the quicker your city officials and good citizens wipe out these side issues of the saloon, the better it will be for your city and your people."

Talking with another good citizen along this line of club or wine rooms or saloon side issues, he said:

"Some of these places are veritable dens of iniquity. I know a painter in this city who has become a victim to rum. He is a good workman and a man of truth. He tells me that he was engaged in painting and decorating one of these dens not long since, when two well known married men of this city, men who hold their heads high in society and call themselves men of honor, brought two mere bits of girls, not over 15 or 16 years of age into the wine room alongside of that where I was busily engaged, and prevailed upon the school girls taking each a glass of wine. The youngsters had evidently taken their first lesson on the downward path. An awful shame, isn't it, sir? There should be some way of stopping such devil's work."

Only a few months since, a prominent physician of East Liverpool said to the writer:

"I am so situated that I can overlook one of the hell holes in the Midway. One Sunday night I noted two mere bits of girls standing at the doorway of the den, slyly knocking in a peculiar way, evidently a prearranged signal, as I had noted the proprietor go in only a few moments before. I ran downstairs and around into the alley and addressed the youngsters, telling them that I would have them arrested on sight, when they hustled away into the darkness, evidently very much dismayed and frightened. You see, they were yet mere novices, and possibly taking their first bad step. The keeper of this den had been known to make approaches to women of unblemished reputation and clean life, and had endeavored to persuade them to call at his place and sample some of the oldest and best wine ever brought to the city; and the scoundrel, on one occasion, came very nigh paying dearly for his impudence, as he only escaped hot punishment through the pleadings of a good woman with her husband, whom she had informed as to the foul work of the would-be tempter and debauchee."

Citizens of East Liverpool, just and true and clean men and women of this city, these are the testimonies of your own people. Is it not high time that remedial measures were being taken? Are your children safe in such a condition of affairs?

SLOAN-COVERT.

One of This City's Best Known Physicians Married Yesterday Afternoon.

Dr. Jennie Sloan, of this city, and Dr. John W. Covert, of New Castle, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at the residence of the bride's parents, Fifth street, none but the immediate family were present at the ceremony, which was a very quiet affair.

The bride is the eldest daughter of Dr. W. J. Sloan and has enjoyed the respect of all who knew her and had a lucrative practice.

Dr. Covert, the groom, is one of the oldest homeopathic physicians in New Castle.

Immediately after the ceremony the bride and groom left on an extended trip to Cleveland, and from there up the lakes and will also make a trip through the east.

TO CHICAGO.

Effort Will be Made to Get Enough
People to Go in a Special Car.

A large number of people in the city are making preparations to attend the Grand Army encampment at Chicago, and if possible enough people will be secured to a special car.

At present at least 35 persons have signified their intention of going to the encampment, and every possible effort will be made to secure the 60 necessary to get a car.

THE MAYOR HAS NO SYMPATHY

For the Man Who Abuses His Wife and Levi Burrows Found It Out.

IT JUST COST HIM $29.60

And Unless He Pays Up or Leaves
Security He Will Get a Trip.

TWO OTHER ARRESTS MADE

The monotony which has prevailed at city hall for several days was relieved somewhat yesterday, and three persons were pinched during the afternoon and evening.

Levi Burrows, who lives in California hollow, got full yesterday and went home last night in a very nasty frame of mind. He abused his family and not being satisfied with this he beat his wife in a shameful manner.

He was arrested by Officer Woods and brought to jail, where he remained all night.

Levi was arraigned this morning, and from the way the mayor went after him, it leaves no doubt in the mind of any one that his honor is not much for wife beaters.

Burrows was fined $25 and costs, $29.60 in all, and will stand committed to the works until the fine and costs are paid. He was sent back to jail, where Mayor Davidson says he will stay until the fine is paid or he puts up gilt-edged security.

Joe Crites entered a complaint against Sherman Thornberry last night in the mayor's court, charging him with being drunk and disorderly. He was run in by Pat Woods and Officer Mahony. At the hearing he was fined $9.60, which he paid and was released.

Frank Lytton and Tom Harker had some trouble on Sixth street yesterday afternoon, and Lytton hit Tom on the head with a cane. He was taken in by Officer Gill and when brought before the mayor was fined $9.60. He paid up and was released.

Teddy Wooliscraft was another offender who has the serious charge against him of beating a woman. The victim is a sister-in-law of Teddy's, and the offense was committed at the residence of Betsy Stanaway in the alley between Second and Third streets.

Wooliscraft was drunk and was in no mood to be trifled with, and when the woman undertook to argue with him he flew into a passion and kicked a hole in the door and knocked the furniture about, besides assaulting his relative.

He was run in by Officer Woods and the patrol conveyed him to jail. Teddy stands an excellent show for the works, and will more than likely share the fate of Burrows.

A man who had papers in his clothes bearing the name of C. Morgan was fast asleep at the foot of Jackson street. He was lying only a short distance from the railroad tracks and had he made a move in that direction he would have landed squarely on the track.

Chief Thompson saw the danger the fellow was in and concluded the cooler was a safer and much more comfortable spot for a snoozer, so he called the patrol and Mr. Morgan is now behind the bars. He will get a hearing this evening when he gets sober.

Charley Brindley, for the third time in three weeks, has again become mixed up with the authorities at city hall. Brindley was arrested by Officer Woods, and he was so drunk that he had to be almost carried into the patrol. He was reposit at the jail, and it is probable he will accompany a few others in a trip to Canton.

ATTACHMENT CASES.

SEVEN PENDING IN M'CARRON'S
COURT.

John Cain Gets a Judgment Against
Mark and Mary
Gribbins.

There are no less than seven attachment cases pending in the court of Justice McCarron.

Papers were served this morning in the case of John Cain versus Mark and Mary Gribbins.

On the 16th of last May judgment was rendered in favor of Cain for $16.10, including the costs in the case. At that time Gribbins was in the employ of the McNicol pottery, and $5.34 of that amount was paid.

Defendants were then lost sight of for a time, and on August 2 Cain made a second attempt to secure the balance of the money due him. Judgment in aid of execution was rendered, and Gribbins had in the meantime secured employment at the Thompson pottery.

The amount of the second judgment, $10.76, will be collected at once. Mrs. Jennie Gribbins, the other defendant in the suit, is now in Europe.

SAYS FIRING ON LEGATIONS MUST STOP.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 9.—A dispatch sent by the Chinese government through Minister Wu demands that firing on legations shall cease and says that imperial government, if desired, will show friendliness and cooperate with relieving column.

AUSTRIAN MINISTER SENDS A DISPATCH.

Vienna, Aug. 9.—Austrian representative in Peking says in a dispatch dated August 4 that the legations were burned on June 21, and there has been continuous firing since then. Part of the legations were blown up by mines.

Admitted to Probate.

Lisbon, Aug. 9.—(Special.)—The will of the late Elva S. Patterson, of Wayne township, was admitted to probate; also the will in the estate of the late Eliza Dibble, of this city, and Mary H. Dibble and Harriet Pritchard appointed executors. No bond was required and appraisers excused.

The will in the estate of Eliza Porter, of Knox township, was filed and a commission issued to take the testimony of a subscribing witness.

GOVERNOR NASH WILL BE HERE

Accompanied by State Treasurer
Cameron He Will Arrive In the City on

NEXT WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON

Will Spend the Night In the City
the Guest of Col. John
N. Taylor.

GIVE THEM A ROYAL WELCOME

Governor George K. Nash has announced that he will attend the Township Line picnic on August 16, and many people from this city will undoubtedly take advantage of the chance to hear the state's executive deliver an address at the picnic.

Governor Nash will be accompanied by State Treasurer I. B. Cameron and will arrive in this city on the afternoon of August 15 and will spend the night in this city as the guests of Colonel John N. Taylor, at his home on Sixth street.

Preparations should be made at once to give the governor and our former county treasurer a hearty welcome, and they will be received here in royal manner, as the city never does anything by half.

It is not known yet just what train they will arrive upon, but when the time has been fixed the city will undoubtedly turn out en masse and greet the distinguished visitors.

An effort will be made to have the governor make a short address in this city.

IDA O'CONNOR FILED A CHARGE

Accused Her Husband, Edward O'Connor, Jr., of Assaulting Her but Was Persuaded

TO WITHDRAW THE CHARGE

Later She Returned to McCarron's Court, Entered Suit and Eddie Gave Bond.

CASE TO BE HEARD AUGUST 20

Mrs. Ida O'Connor on last Tuesday filed a complaint in the court of Justice McCarron against Edward O'Connor, jr., her husband, charging him with assault and battery.

Constable Powell went to the O'Connor factory and brought Edward into court. After considerable argument the charge was withdrawn and the parties went home.

Yesterday morning Mrs. O'Connor again appeared at the office of the justice and made a second complaint, charging her husband with the same offense as on the previous occasion.

She says he came home the evening before and abused her and threatened to kill her. Mrs. O'Connor is determined to prosecute her husband this time, and says that no amount of persuasion would induce her to withdraw the charge.

Mrs. O'Connor went to Pittsburg this morning, where she will remain with her parents until the time set for the trial.

The union has been anything but a happy one, their domestic troubles dating from a time almost immediately after the ceremony was performed.

Justice McCarron placed O'Connor under $500 bond for his appearance on Monday, August 20, at which time the case will be heard.

Attorney G. Y. Travis has been retained by Mrs. O'Connor and M. J. McGarry will represent the husband.

PENSIONS.

Commissioner Evan's Report Will Show That 993,529 Are on Uncle Sam's Rolls.

The forthcoming annual report of the commissioner of pensions, Mr. Evans, will show a grand total of 993,529 pensioners on the rolls on July 1 last.

The figures on which the report will be based are now complete and ready for incorporation in the report.

They show that on July 1, 1899, there were 991,519 pensioners on the rolls. During the year 40,645 original pensions were granted and 4,699 names were restored to the rolls.

To offset this 43,334 names were dropped from the rolls during the year, including 35,809 by reason of death, 909 by remarriage of pensioners and 6,616 for other causes, leaving the total number on the rolls on July 1, 1900, 993,529.

This is an increase of 2,010 pensioners for the year. The number of claims of all kinds pending July 1, 1900, was 437,104, against 477,239 on July 1, 1899.

The report shows a total of 260,797 names dropped during the six years ended June 30, of which 193,014 were because of deaths. The number dropped by reason of death during the fiscal year just closed is about 14,200 less than was estimated.

Pike Abandoned.

The Wellsville, Hammondsville, Irondale and Somerset pike, known as the Big Four pike, which it was proposed to build this summer, has practically been abandoned. The petitions for an additional levy of four mills have been laid aside, as there is at present too much opposition to a 10-mill levy.

MEETINGS OF VETERANS.

Where a Number of Reunions of Old Soldiers Will be Held This Summer.

Reunions of the war of the rebellion will be held as follows:

One Hundred and Fourth Ohio infantry at Minerva August 8 and 9.

Sherman brigade, consisting of the Sixty-fourth and Sixty-fifth Ohio infantry, Sixth battery and McLaughlin's squadron of cavalry, at Crestline, August 14, 15, 16 and 17.

AN ACCIDENT.

The Little Daughter of Rev. Platts Turned on the Gas and an Explosion Followed.

Steubenville Herald Star.

An accident occurred at the home of Rev. J. A. Platts, of Mingo, yesterday. A little 2-year-old daughter had turned on the gas in the stove and Mrs. Platts, not knowing this, lighted the gas, causing an explosion and burning Mrs. Platts and little daughter Dorothy very painfully but not seriously.

AGAINST CIGARETTES.

A Society Has Been Formed in Columbus to Protest Against the Thing.

An anti-cigarette society has been formed in Columbus and a petition has been sent to the board of education of that city, asking that a rule be passed prohibiting smoking about the school yards. The cooperation of the school children will also be asked.

Farmer Delegates.

Governor Nash on Tuesday appointed a delegation of one from each county to represent Ohio in the National Farmers' congress at Colorado Springs, Col., August 21-23.

From Stark county he appointed Webster Reeder; from Carroll, W. L. Smelts, jr., and from Columbiana, J. W. Hoopes.

A Tax on Poles.

New Brighton council has passed an ordinance levying a tax of $1 per year upon each telephone, telegraph and electric light pole in that city.

If East Liverpool had an ordinance like that there wouldn't be any deficiency in the city treasury.

They Want a Game.

Toronto Tribune.

Patrick Kessler, manager of the high school base ball team of East Liverpool, is anxious for a game with the Toronto high school boys on Saturday, August 18.

MRS. HECKATHORN

A Former Resident of the City Died Monday at Her Home Near Negley.

Mrs. George Heckathorn died Monday at her home near Negley, cancer being the cause.

Mrs. Heckathorn was well known in this city, where she resided for many years. She was 63 years of age and had been married twice, being the widow of Potter Welsh, when she was united to Mr. Heckathorn.

Besides her husband deceased leaves six children to the Welsh union, Emma, Flo, Mary, Edward Bert and William, to mourn her death.

Funeral services were conducted at the late residence, a number of persons from this city being present, and interment was made in Long Run's cemetery.

STICK TOGETHER.

The Way Sebring People Help Each Other Out of Trouble Causes Comment in Alliance.

A few days ago Jack Joyce and S. A. Baker, of Sebring, were arrested and placed in the Alliance jail on charges of drunk and disorderly. In commenting on the arrests an Alliance paper says:

"The way the Sebring people stick to one another when one gets into trouble has often caused comment. Baker's fine was paid by friends and Joyce, who was slated for the works on a dose of $20 and costs, was released last night, his fine being settled for by his Sebring friends."

TO EXCURSIONISTS.

Are You Going to Chicago for the Meeting of the G. A. R. Boys in August.

It will be a grand time among the old veterans and their friends in Chicago at the coming national convention. A number of our residents are anxious to attend and will go in a special car. Do you desire to take part? If you do, leave your names with Mack Anderson, at C. G. Anderson's drug store, in the Diamond.

Will Enforce the Ordinances.

The police authorities of Beaver have directed that all boys found shooting birds inside of the borough limits shall be arrested, and also that the ordinance against throwing paper on the streets, pavements and parks shall be strictly enforced.

It would be a good idea to have like ordinances in this city enforced.

A Colony from Massillon.

Fifty people have gone from Massillon to Oklahoma for the purpose of forming a colony on government lands. They will form a municipality along lines advanced by local and socialistic leaders.

DOUBT CANNOT EXIST.

Investigation Will Only Strengthen the Proof We Give in East Liverpool.

There must be something stronger than imagination behind expressions of such representative citizens of East Liverpool as Mr. Robert McNewell, carpenter of West Fifth street, who says: "If everyone receives the same results as I from the course of treatment prescribed by Doan's Kidney Pills, my advice is, go to Larkin's drug store, procure a box, take them according to directions and the results will inevitably follow. One box effected a cure in my case, the particulars of which I will only be too pleased to give to anyone personally calling upon me."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

The Convention to be Held at Columbiana Next Week Will be a Large One.

The Ohio State Mennonite Sunday school conference to be held at Columbiana Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week will be one of the greatest gatherings of that character to be held in the state this year. Over 1,000 delegates will be in attendance, and the sessions will be held in a large tent designed especially for the accommodation of the conference.

The Mennonite society is particularly strong in the country about Columbiana, Leetonia and Washingtonville.

POTTERS STILL DELAYED.

The Manufacturers Labor Committee Were Not at Home and Couldn't Act.

Trenton True American.

The executive board of the Brotherhood of Operative Potters received a communication from the committee on labor of the manufacturers association yesterday, stating that action on the resolutions passed at the recent kilnmen's meeting had been deferred, owing to the absence of some of the members of the committee.

The communication was promptly answered, the executive board requesting prompt action, saying that they could not go ahead in their work until they knew whether or not the resolutions were accepted.

What Makes Home?

Home is made by the family. Without the love which comes with children there may be a house but never a home, in the best meaning of the word. Many a house which was only four walls and a roof has been made a home by the agency of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Nature sets her face against childlessness and "Favorite Prescription" works with nature to remove the obstacles to maternity.

"I had been a sufferer from uterine trouble for about three years, having two miscarriages in that time and the doctors that I consulted said I would have to go through an operation before I could give birth to children," writes Mrs. Blanche E. Evans, of Parsons, Luzerne Co., Pa., Box 41. "When about to give up in despair, I bought a bottle of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and after taking it felt better than I had for years. Felt improved before I had taken one-half bottle. After taking four and a half bottles I gave birth to a bright baby girl who is now four months old and has not had a day of sickness. She is as bright as can be. I cannot say too much in praise of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser a work for every woman is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covered book or 31 stamps for cloth covered to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

SIDE WINE ROOMS.

Read article in today's issue on this subject. There are some startlers contained therein, and investigation has demonstrated the truthfulness of these startlers.

GOVERNOR NASH.

Undeniably information says that Governor Nash will be in East Liverpool on August 15, the guest of Colonel John Taylor, and that the governor will be at the Township Line picnic. State Treasurer I. B. Cameron will accompany the governor on the trip.

WIFE BEATERS.

If ever Mayor Billy Davidson did a good thing, it was when he put $29 60 against the record of a wife beater. Pity it is that he could not have made it even heavier, and added imprisonment at hard labor for six months or a year. We have some noted wife beaters in East Liverpool, and they are just a little lower, in the estimation of true men, than a mangy yellow cur. No true man or woman should even recognize such miserable creatures.

TENTH REGIMENT.

The Pittsburg Post, in referring to the turning over of the old flag of the Tenth Pennsylvania infantry, U. S. volunteers, to Governor Stone, says that the present color sergeant, Harry Cundall, carried the flag all through the battles in which the Tenth participated in the Philippines. Cundall did nothing of the kind. Color Sergeant Harry Palmer carried the colors at the time of the battle of Malate, July 31 and August 1, 1898. The colors were left in camp that night by order of Colonel A. L. Hawkins, who led the reinforcements, under charge of Color Sergeant Harry Palmer, to the battle field, and did good and effective duty in that fight, the color guard, Harry Evans, of Ruffsdales, Westmoreland county, Pa., and Eddie Boyle, of Beaver Falls, Beaver county, Pa., were Nos. 1 and 2 in the first form of the reinforcements, and the writer knows that they did faithful service and good sharpshooting, special service for the occasion, assigned especially thereto by Colonel Hawkins. Further, the same color bearer and the same color guard took part in the battle and capture of Manila, and the colors of the Tenth Pennsylvania were 150 yards in advance of those of any other regiment in the army of occupation when General Greene sent a mounted courier dashing up to Colonel A. L. Hawkins with orders that the Tenth regiment should halt. Afterwards, the regulars and the Nebraska boys were permitted to go in front, as per the orders of General Greene, the Nebraska boys coming up from the left and rear of the Tenth regiment and passing them in a narrow alley way. The color bearer of the Tenth, standing alongside of his beloved commander, pointed out the advanced position of the regiment to the colonel just before Greene's orderly came to the front. Cundall was not made color sergeant until after Color Sergeant Palmer was discharged by order of the secretary of war, and either Boyle or Evans should have been selected for that berth, as they had both been warmly commended for faithful and gallant service. Favoritism did the work for Cundall, as he is a Washington boy and could be right at headquarters all the time. We have nothing to say against Harry Cundall, as we believe he is all right personally and that he will not flinch in the hour of emergency. If fate carries the Tenth to China, he will have a good chance to show his colors.

OHIO PEOPLE

THOUGHT TO HAVE BEEN MURDERED IN CHINA.

The List Contains the Names of Several Prominent Ministers in This State.

An incomplete list of the American missionaries who are supposed to have been slain by the Boxers contains the names of several Ohioans. These unfortunates are:

Miss Mary E. Andrews, Congregationalist, associate professor of theology in the North China college, born in Cleveland in 1840; has been in China since 1888.

Rev. Dr. William S. Ament, superintendent of the Congregational mission at Peking; born at Owosso, Mich.; in China since 1877. His wife, Mrs. Mary A. Penfield Ament, and their two children are now in Owosso, Mich.

Rev. George Ritchie Davis, presiding elder of the Methodist church in the Peking district; born at Kingston, O., in 1847; in China since 1870; married Miss Marion Kane Brown, a missionary, in 1871, who, with their seven children, are in this country.

Rev. James H. Ingram, Congregationalist, born at Mansfield, O., in 1858; in China since 1887; father, Robert Ingram, lives in Vineland, N. J.

Mrs. George D. N. Lowry, formerly Miss Catherine Mullican, of Cincinnati, O., where her father now lives.

Lowry, infant son of Dr. and Mrs. George D. N. Lowry.

Miss Luella Miner, Congregationalist, born at Oberlin, O., in 1861; studied at Oberlin college; in China since 1887.

Miss Virginia C. Murdock, M. D., Congregationalist; born at Zanesville, O., in 1850; formerly lived in Chicago; in China since 1881.

Mrs. A. H. Smith, formerly Miss Emma Dickinson, Congregationalist; born near Zanesville, O., in 1849; Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have one of their sons in this country.

Rev. J. L. Whiting, Presbyterian; born in Rochester, N. Y., in 1835; in China since 1869; wife and daughter now in Wooster, O.

NOT A FORTUNE.

That Letter Simply Wanted to Know if Schepp Got a Fortune from England.

Several months ago a letter was received at the city police station from Germany, inquiring about a man named Schepp. The letter when translated by a local party left the impression that there was a fortune in Germany for Schepp.

It was nothing of the kind. The German parties had simply written here to find out if Schepp had received a fortune from England.

The Same Old Story.

"Didn't know it was loaded" caused the death of Roldo Boyd, a 15-year-old boy of Coshocton. He was showing a number of his friends that his revolver was empty and placing it against his temple snapped it, when it went off, killing him almost instantly.

SOME GREASE

Caused a Great Deal of Smoke Last Night and Fire Department Made a Run.

Last evening at 6:30 the grease in a frying pan at the Arcade restaurant caught fire, and from the amount of flame and smoke, people in the vicinity imagined the whole building was on fire.

A message was sent to the fire department, and in a remarkably short time the firemen responded, but the fire had been extinguished almost immediately, and their services were not needed.

A NEW UNION.

A Branch of the Retail Clerks Instituted at Rochester, Pa., Last Night.

Deputy Organizer J. E. Anderson, accompanied by D. M. McLane and Edward Larkins, returned from Rochester last night, where they on last evening organized a branch of the retail clerks' union.

The new local starts with a membership of 35, and the prospects are good for a very successful union in that place. Officers were installed and a pleasant time was had by the visitors.

THE PICNIC.

Warehouse Girls Entertained Their Friends at Columbian Park Yesterday.

The first annual picnic of the warehouse girls given at Columbian park yesterday was an immense success. Everybody who attended enjoyed themselves and returned home at a late hour last night.

The ball game between the shoe clerks and clothing clerks proved to be an easy thing for the shoe clerks, who won by a score of 12 to 5.

LEFT TODAY.

A Large Number of Persons Took in the Excursion to Niagara Falls.

A number of persons from this city took advantage of the excursion to Niagara Falls and among those who left this afternoon were:

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dodd, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Cripps, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Ansley, Mrs. R. L. Herbert and City Treasurer S. T. Herbert.

—Ernest Orr and Richard Manor returned to the city yesterday after a 15-day stay at Denver, Col.

PUBLIC FUNDS.

Can be Used by Officials of State Hospitals for Their Expenses Attending Official Meetings.

It will be remembered that the reason assigned for the small attendance at the recent meeting in Massillon of the officials of state hospitals, was that the expenses of the persons attending was not paid by the state. Ex-Governor Charles Foster, who was chairman of the conference, has since looked into the matter, and, upon the authority of the state auditor, he states that that official has not and will not rule that public funds cannot be used for this purpose. It is expected, therefore, that the October meeting will be well attended.

Rural Postal Rates.

Postmaster General Smith has issued the following order regarding the postal rates and the cancellation of stamps in the rural free delivery districts:

1. It is ordered that, beginning August 1, the drop letter, or 1-cent rate of postage, will not apply within rural free delivery limits. The 2-cent per ounce rate will be exacted within such delivery on all first-class mail except postal cards.

2. That the introduction of rural free delivery will not increase or otherwise modify the present rate of postage on second-class matter.

3. That the rural free delivery carriers will not bring to the postoffice mail matter collected by them which may be delivered on their routes before completing their trips.

4. That stamps on mail matter collected by rural free delivery carriers, including those on matter delivered en route, as named in section 3, will be cancelled by them and reported to the postmaster, who will derive the benefit of the cancellation if the office is fourth class.

5. That until suitable rubber cancelling stamps can be supplied by the department free delivery carriers will cancel the stamps with the indelible pencils furnished them for use in registered letters.

Salem Creditors Paid.

Clerk of Courts McNutt, as receiver in the case of Furman Gee vs. the Salem Church Organ company, has declared a first dividend of 55 per cent on all claims presented to him. About $25,000 will be distributed among the creditors, and a further dividend will be declared later.

Wanted.

Any person having a copy of the Evening News Review of Monday, April 2, 1900, will confer a favor by bringing or sending the same to this office.

LOST—A bunch of keys. Finder will be suitably rewarded by returning same to J. C. McQuilkin, West Market street.

THE END OF TOM POWELL'S

Troubles Is Not Yet—Arrested Today by Deputy Sheriff Stubbs, of Cadiz.

TAKEN TO HARRISON COUNTY

Charge Was Made by J. W. Henderson, of Scio, Who Bought a Horse.

M'LANE REFUSED TO TAKE BAIL

Thomas Powell was today arrested by Deputy Sheriff Stubbs, of Harrison county, and will be taken to Cadiz to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretense.

The charge was filed by J. W. Henderson, of Scio, to whom Powell sold a horse on which there was a chattel mortgage held by a man named Curran. The latter demanded his property and got it and now Henderson wants satisfaction.

Powell is the man who has figured in justice courts a number of times lately in various suits involving a wagon and several horses, which he sold to H. S. Rinehart.

After the deal had been made claims began to come in from all quarters, but Mr. Rinehart settled all the obligations some time ago and every one supposed the incident was closed. It now develops that Powell had no right to dispose of any of the property in his possession, and it will likely go hard with him when his case comes up in Harrison county.

An effort was made to have Powell admitted to bail in the court of Justice McLane, but the squire after consulting Acting Prosecutor Speaker, refused and Deputy Stubbs took his prisoner to Cadiz this afternoon.

FELIX M'KNIGHT

DIED LAST NIGHT AT HIS HOME IN PITTSBURG.

Deceased Was Very Well Known and Had a Number of Relatives Here.

Friends in this city received word this morning of the death of Felix McKnight in Pittsburg last evening.

Deceased was 51 years old and was well known in this city, where he has a number of relatives. Mr. McKnight was one of the most prominent members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in the United States, having held the position of colonel of the order for 14 years and also that of national secretary for 20 years.

Deceased was a puddler by trade and was prominently identified with the Amalgamated association of Iron and Steel Workers for many years.

Thomas Cannon, of this city, a relative, left this afternoon to be present at the funeral. Mrs. Cannon has been at the bedside since Monday.

A requiem high mass will be celebrated at St. Agnes' church, Fifth avenue, at 9 o'clock Friday morning and the interment will be in Calvary cemetery.

The family have telegraphed to James Doherty, of New York, the highest officer of the A. O. O. H., and expect him to attend the funeral.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to the members of the G. A. R., Carpenters' union and to our neighbors and friends for their kindness during our recent bereavement.

CITIZEN SPEAKS.

He Tells of the Demand for Some One Who Understands Landscape Gardening.

Editor News Review—I was glad to note that you called attention, some time since, to the need of a skillful landscape gardener in this community. Many of our well-to-do citizens have ample means to gratify their taste for rural or suburban life, and these are looking for choice sites or locations, with a view of taking up their residence there, along the lines of our street cars, or at points which contemplated lines will soon reach, notably along the line of the Calcutta or Lisbon roads. Any of our citizens who know of competent men in the art of ornamental gardening, should make the wants of this community known to the said artiste.

CALF'S BRAINS.—As soon as the brains come home throw them into ice cold water and let stand for an hour. Remove the fine skin and veins that are around them, place in a saucepan, cover with cold water and add one small onion, one teaspoonful of salt, a bay leaf and a couple of cloves. Simmer gently five minutes. Drain and place on the ice. After an hour cut them into several nice pieces, dip in eggs and bread crumbs and fry in boiling fat. Garnish with parsley and green peas.

Revelation of Acute Pressure in London Money Market—Helped by Our Buying War Bonds.

New York, Aug. 9.—The stock market Wednesday was even duller than Tuesday, and the movement of prices was trivial and insignificant without any important exception. The room traders sold stocks in the morning, impelled apparently by reports of the heavy volume of gold to be exported. Estimates were put out that the amount of shipments Wednesday and Thursday would mount up to over $7,000,000. When it was seen that the total would not exceed $5,300,000 the room shorts covered. The market closed practically lifeless near to Tuesday night's level. Tuesday's advancing tendency in United States Rubber was contested and that stock was quite active and feverish, ranging over 1 3-4 and closing at a net gain of 3-8. There was the usual professional dealing in Sugar and Brooklyn Transit, the latter suffering from the delay in the publication of the annual report, which has been promised at various times. The large American subscriptions to the new British exchequer bonds continued to absorb a large amount of discussion and surmise in Wall street. As an evidence of the large resources of capital available to the country the incident was generally accepted as subject for national congratulation, but as an evidence of the acute pressure to which the London money market is being subjected and the possible results on the world at large of this condition it was not regarded as reassuring. It is evident from the public criticism in England of the large allotment made to the United States and the apologetic tone of the explanation to parliament by the chancellor of the exchequer that the policy adopted was forced by the many conditions which might almost be classed as embarrassed. The allotment to the United States of half the loan before subscriptions were received in England and the quick closing of the loan is in strong contrast to the effort made to discriminate in favor of small subscribers in the case of last April's "Khaki" loan. There is presumptive evidence of some special provision entered into with the "leading Anglo-American house in London," to which was allotted half of the issue to insure shipments of gold in payment. Today's shipments of gold to Paris show that that center is still in competition with London for the precious metal, and the piling up of reserves by the Bank of France is now said to amount to $200,000,000. The news of renewed attack on the legations in Peking, the progress of hostilities involved in the march on Peking, and the language of the queen's address in proroguing parliament all gave force to these considerations and contributed to the profound dullness of speculation not only in New York, but in all the great financial markets. Bonds were neglected and irregular. Total sales, par value, $875,000. U. S. new 4s declined 3-8 and the 3s and old 4s 1-4 in the bid price.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Aug. 9.—All markets dropped Wednesday from the lack of interest due to excessively warm weather. Wheat closed at a decline of 7-8c, corn closed 3-4c lower, oats 1-8c lower and provisions a shade to 10c lower.

TO DEAL WITH PHILIPPINES.

Thousands Heard the Speeches of the Nebraskan and His Ticket Mate, Mr. Stevenson, Accepting Their Nominations. Richardson Cut His Speech Short.

Indianapolis, Aug. 9.—The notification of William J. Bryan and Adlai E. Stevenson of their nomination by the Democrats at their recent Kansas City convention to the offices respectively of president and vice president of the United States was made the occasion of a demonstration with which the Democrats may be fairly said to have begun their national campaign.

The notification occurred in the Military park, a beautiful shaded tract of ground in the center of the city. The park contains probably 30 acres of ground, and it was well covered with people. In the vicinity of the speakers' stand the crowd was very dense, and the entire park was well filled. Probably a majority of them were from other portions of Indiana, while many also came from distant states. There was also a quite general gathering of the members of the Democratic national committee, while, of course, the members of the two committees appointed to make the official notifications were also present. The occasion was therefore regarded as of national importance. The ceremony was preceded by a parade over the principal streets of the city, which was participated in by a number of visiting and local Democratic clubs. These acted as an escort to the notification party, and the cavalcade was an imposing one. Five speeches were made, Mayor Taggart, of Indianapolis, adding a welcoming address to the notification speeches of Representative Richardson and Governor Thomas, and responses were made by Mr. Bryan and Mr. Stevenson.

The weather was hot, but toward the close of the ceremonies a slight breeze alleviated to some extent the suffering occasioned by the high temperature. At one time it appeared as if actual suffocation might be the result of the terrible crowding in front of the stand where the ceremonies took place, and much personal discomfort ensued, but beyond a few fainting attacks no evil resulted.

The platform on which the speeches were made was elevated about six feet above the park lawn, and upon it sat the candidates and their families and the members of the national committee and of the notification committees as well as a few invited guests. Mr. Bryan sat near the center of the stage, just to the left of Chairman Jones, who presided. Mrs. Bryan and William, Jr., occupied adjoining chairs. Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson also sat in the same group, as did Mrs. Senator Jones, Congressman Richardson and Governor and Mrs. Thomas.

The meeting was called to order in a brief speech by Mayor Taggart, who introduced Senator Jones as permanent chairman of the meeting.

Senator Jones made no speech upon taking the chair, but confined his remarks to the simple introduction of the speakers to the audience.

Congressman James D. Richardson, of Tennessee, to whose lot as permanent chairman of the national convention, fell the duty of notifying Mr. Bryan of his nomination, made the first of the nomination addresses.

Probably no man ever made an important speech under greater difficulties. The sun was throwing its rays directly upon many of the auditors, and besides they were present to hear Mr. Bryan. In this crowd, where a hand once down could not be raised, and once raised could not be lowered, were old men, frail women and small children. Soon the mass began to sway back and forth through the efforts of those in the rear to get nearer the speakers. There were a few screams, more groans, and it became necessary to get some of the feeble people out of the crush. There were loud cries of "Cut it short!" "Give Bryan a chance!" "We can't stand it here!" and other signs of impatience.

For a time Mr. Richardson did not appear perturbed by this clamor, but when there appeared to be real danger of serious results he brought his remarks to a somewhat precipitate close, speaking for only about 15 minutes. Notwithstanding the general confusion Mr. Richardson was liberally applauded, especially when he spoke of

"Sulu slavery and oriental harems."

There was an immediate change of deportment on the part of the crowd when Mr. Bryan arose. He was introduced by Chairman Jones. A light breeze sprang up, bringing some relief to the overheated mass of humanity.

After applause the crowd quieted down and remained well behaved throughout the delivery of the speech. There were occasional cries of "Louder" when Mr. Bryan first began to speak, but these were offset by huzzas for the speaker. After a few contests of this kind the auditors made no further signs except to applaud the points of the speech.

Mr. Bryan read his speech, departing not from his manuscript except in a word of explanation at the beginning of his address. He was sitting immediately to the left of Senator Jones when he was presented by that gentleman. He arose promptly and was immediately recognized by the entire assemblage.

Mr. Bryan never appeared to better advantage. His face was slightly flushed, but his eye was clear and calm and his voice never more completely at his command. He was dressed in a black sack coat, which was loosely buttoned about the waist. A white shirt front and white necktie gave the appearance of coolness which comported well with the speaker's personal bearing. His voice was far-reaching and that he was heard at a great distance was made evident by the fact that people far out in the crowd listened apparently as intently as did those who sat on the platform.

Among the sentiments of the speech which were applauded with especial zest were those declaring that under existing circumstances "we dare not educate the Philippines lest they learn to read the Declaration of Independence and the constitution of the United States," "that we would never agree to change the glory of this country for that of all the empires," "that it is not necessary to own a people to trade with them," "and that the command of 'Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel' had no galling gun attachment."

There was also general cheering over the speaker's promise to convene congress immediately to remedy the Philippine situation if he were elected. No part of the address received the earnest commendation that was bestowed upon the peroration. This called out an outburst that was both tumultuous and prolonged.

Mr. Bryan spoke a few words extemporaneously in introducing his speech, all of which except the peroration was read from manuscript. The closing sentences were repeated from memory in a most effective manner. The extemporaneous introduction was as follows:

"I feel that I owe an apology or explanation to the people who are to listen, for the fact that I must read what pleasant to me and more agreeable to you to speak without notes, but I want to reach that larger constituency which we reach through the newspapers, for it is a thousand times as numerous as any crowd that could assemble here, and therefore in order that I may speak to all throughout the land I have committed to writing what I desire to say and will ask for your indulgence while I read my speech."

Mr. Bryan in the course of his speech advanced four points as the contentions of the defenders of imperialism as to the Philippines as follows:

First—That we must improve the present opportunity to become a world power and enter into international politics.

Second—That our commercial interests in the Philippine islands and in the orient make it necessary for us to hold the islands permanently.

Third—That the spread of the Christian religion will be facilitated by a colonial policy.

Fourth—That there is no honorable retreat from the position which the nation has taken.

The first argument is addressed to the nation's pride and the second to the nation's pocketbook. The third is intended for the church-member and the fourth for the partisan.

He said in part that it is a sufficient answer to the first argument to say that for more than a century this nation has been a world power.

As to the second, he said in part it is not necessary to own people in order to trade with them. We carry on trade today with every part of the world, and our commerce has expanded more rapidly than the commerce of any European empire. A harbor and coaling station in the Philippines would answer every trade and military necessity and such a concession could have been secured at any time without difficulty.

Farmers and laboring men have, as a rule, small incomes and under systems which place the tax upon consumption pay more than their fair share of the expenses of the government. Thus the very people who receive least benefit from imperialism will be injured most by the military burdens which accompany it.

As to the third he said in part, if what has been termed the "gospel of the Philippines" it would be a sufficient answer to say that a majority of the Philippines are now members of one branch of the Christian church, but the principle involved is one of much wider application and challenges serious consideration. We cannot approve of this doctrine in one place unless we are willing to apply it everywhere. If there is poison in the blood of the hand it will ultimately reach the heart. It is equally true that forcible Christianity, if planted under the American flag in the faraway orient, will sooner or later be transplanted upon American soil. * * * Let it be known that our missionaries are seeking souls instead of sovereignty; let it be known that instead of being the advance guard of conquering armies, they are going forth to help and to uplift, * * * and the welcome given to our missionaries will be more cordial than the welcome extended to the missionaries of any other nation.

Of the fourth he said in part: The argument, made by some, that it was unfortunate for the nation that it had anything to do with the Philippine islands, but that the naval victory at Manila made the permanent acquisition of those islands necessary is also unsound. We won a naval victory at Santiago, but that did not compel us to hold Cuba. The shedding of American blood in the Philippine islands does not make it imperative that we should retain possession forever. There is an easy, honest, honorable solution of the Philippine question. It is set forth in the Democratic platform and it is submitted with confidence to the American people. This plan I unreservedly endorse. If elected I shall convene congress in extraordinary session as soon as I am inaugurated and recommend an immediate declaration of the nation's purpose—first, to establish a stable form of government in the Philippine islands, just as we are now establishing a stable form of government in the island of Cuba; second, to give independence to the Philippines, just as we have promised to give independence to the Cubans; third, to protect the Philippines from outside interference while they work out their destiny, just as we have protected the republics of South and Central America, and are, by the Monroe doctrine, pledged to protect Cuba.

Mr. Bryan was followed by Governor C. S. Thomas, of Colorado, who introduced Mr. Stevenson. Mr. Thomas spoke only about 10 minutes. He received very general attention and was given frequent and generous applause.

Mr. Stevenson was apparently slightly nervous, as the time approached for him to take the stand, but he soon gained confidence as he proceeded. Mr. Bryan led the liberal applause which greeted the appearance of his fellow-candidate as he advanced to the front, and many points of the speech were liberally punctuated by a repetition of applause as the speaker proceeded. He read from manuscript, but held the majority of his audience to the end. Mr. Stevenson, in the course of his speech reviewed the Democratic platform practically in detail, endorsing its principles. Mr. Stevenson closed amid liberal applause. Senator Jones then declared the meeting adjourned sine die.

HANNA WOULD'NT STUMP.

Heath Failed to Induce the Chairman to Make Campaign Speeches—Hanna Goes to Boston.

New York, Aug. 9.—Senator Mark Hanna, chairman of the Republican national committee, left this city for Boston where he goes to look over the work of his sub-committee and examine the political situation in general. Chairman Hanna will return here on Saturday morning.

Today the national chairman will be the guest at luncheon of the Boston Commercial club and on Friday he will be entertained at dinner by a number of Bay state Republicans. Mr. Hanna announced that the advisory committee is now practically completed and that he would make known the names of the 18 members early next week.

Among the important callers at the national headquarters were Col. P. Huntington, H. M. Hanna, a brother to the Senator; Tams Bixby, chairman of the Republican state committee of Minnesota; former Governor Brown, of Rhode Island, and General Clarkson, of Iowa. Perry S. Heath, secretary of the national committee, left for Chicago. He expressed regret that he had been unable to persuade Chairman Hanna to take the stump.

A PROHIBITION TRAIN.

One Will Be Run Across the Continent, From Which Candidates Will Make Speeches.

New York, Aug. 9.—John G. Woolly and Henry B. Metcalf, respectively the candidates for president and vice president on the Prohibition ticket, will travel across the United States and back on a special Prohibition train. Plans for equipping the train with speakers and literature and a glee club were discussed at a recent meeting of the leaders.

The special will start from Chicago early in October, and Messrs. Woolly and Metcalf will be accompanied by Oliver Stewart, chairman of the Prohibition committee; Professor Samuel Dickie, executive chairman; Joshua A. Levering, of Boston, the presidential candidate in 1896; Hale Johnson, of Illinois, and others.

In the different states the candidates on the state prohibition tickets will join the train and make speeches.

PRAISED BY GOV. STONE.

He and Others That Inspected the Guard Complimented Its Condition.

Mt. Gretna, Pa., Aug. 9.—The men of the Second brigade suffered greatly from the heat during inspection and many dropped out of the ranks exhausted. None, however, was seriously affected. The inspection was very satisfactory, the various regiments making a creditable showing. Governor Stone, Major General Miller and the inspectors expressed themselves as highly gratified. General John A. Wiley and staff, of the Second brigade, witnessed the review and inspection.

The Fifth, General Burchfield's regiment, was the first to take the field. Then came the Fourteenth, Colonel W. E. Thompson in command, which was followed by Colonel James E. Barnett's famous "Fighting Tenth." Immediately after the inspection of the Tenth the regiment was drawn up in line and the men stood at "present arms" while Colonel Barnett presented the battle-scarred flags to Governor Stone to be deposited in the flag room at the capitol at Harrisburg.

Later Governor Stone and Major General Miller attended the inspection of Colonel Willis J. Hulings' Sixteenth regiment and Eighteenth, Colonel Frank J. Rutledge commanding. This completed the examination of General Wiley's brigade. The hospital corps of the Second and Third brigades were inspected and displayed remarkable proficiency in the litter and ambulance drills.

CATHOLICS WHO ABSTAIN.

Opponents of the Liquor Traffic and Drinking Convened in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 9.—The thirtieth annual convention of the Catholic total abstinence union of America, began here and will continue until Friday. About 300 delegates are in attendance from nearly every state in the union.

Previous to the business session solemn pontifical high mass was celebrated at the cathedral by Archbishop Ryan. The sermon was preached by Monsignor T. J. Conaty, rector of the Catholic university at Washington.

The convention decided to send a cablegram to the pope giving a summary of the work of the union during the 30 years of existence, and asking papal benediction. A committee on credentials was appointed.

FIRE DESTROYED PLANTS.

Shelby Tube and Boston Electroduct Burned—Union Drawn Steel Afire at Beaver Falls, Pa.

Beaver Falls, Aug. 9.—Fire which broke out in the works of the Shelby steel tube company totally destroyed that plant, spread to the factory of the Boston electroduct company and soon laid it in ashes. The firemen were powerless to stay the progress of the flames and later the mills of the Union drawn steel company were burning, with the chances largely in favor of the flames spreading to adjacent works. A conservative estimate placed the loss at $300,000.

OHIO IN CONGRESS FROM 1803 TO 1901.

SAMUEL SULLIVAN COX.

Samuel Sullivan Cox was one of the imposing figures in Democratic politics in Ohio from 1852 to 1867, and afterward in the city of New York. He was born in Zanesville, Ohio, Sept. 30, 1824, and died in the city of New York, Sept. 10, 1889.

He graduated from Brown university in 1846, studied law, was admitted to the bar and began practice at Zanesville in 1849. In 1853 he removed to Columbus and became editor of the Ohio Statesman, in which position he displayed unusual literary ability. In 1855 he became secretary of legation at Lima, Peru, but returned to Ohio in 1856, and was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Twelfth district, Franklin, Licking and Pickaway counties. He was elected from the same district to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858, and to the Thirty-seventh in 1860.

In 1862, at the decennial apportionment of the state, he was placed in the Seventh district, made up of the counties of Franklin, Madison, Clark and Greene, which was regarded as safely Republican, but in 1862 it elected him to the Thirty-eighth. He was again a candidate for the Thirty-ninth in 1864, but was defeated by a few votes.

He removed from Ohio to New York in 1866 and formed a law partnership with Algernon Sidney Sullivan, which soon became one of the leading law firms of the metropolis. In 1868 the Democracy of his new district sent him to congress, where he remained almost continually the rest of his life. His only unsatisfied ambition was his failure to be elected speaker of the house of representatives, which he nearly attained on two or three different occasions.

He was a man of rare wit and humor, a brilliant lecturer and an orator of great force and originality. For a long period he was one of the regents of the Smithsonian Institute. He was a man of practical ideas and applied them in legislation. To him was most largely due the organization of the life-saving service, and increased compensation for letter carriers, and vacations without loss of pay. Mr. Cox traveled extensively in Europe and northern Africa, between 1880 and 1885. In 1885 he was appointed minister to Turkey by President Grover Cleveland.

He enjoyed a wide reputation as an author. Among his best known books were "The Buckeye Abroad," "Eight Years in Congress," "Free Land and Free Trade," "Three Decades of Legislation" and "Why We Laugh."

CYDOR B. TOMPKINS.

Foremost among the lawyers of the Muskingum valley, at the beginning of the second half of the century, was Cydnor B. Tompkins of the Morgan county bar. He enjoyed a wide practice in that and adjoining counties, and he was most highly esteemed wherever he was known.

Brilliant and talented, he had a host of friends who finally induced him to enter politics, and in 1856 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Sixteenth district, Morgan, Washington and Muskingum counties, and in 1858 was re-elected from the same district to the Thirty-eighth.

He was descended from a distinguished Loudon county, Virginia, family, his mother being a Quakeress, and was born in Belmont county, Ohio, Nov. 8, 1810. He graduated from the Ohio university at Athens in 1835, studied law and was admitted to the bar in Zanesville in 1837. He died in the city of McConelsville, July 21, 1862.

JOSEPH R. COCKERILL.

Colonel Joseph R. Cockerill was a native of Adams county, and was born the year 1818, and died in Ohio Oct. 23, 1875. He was the father of Colonel John A. Cockerill, the journalist. The elder Cockerill commanded the Seventieth Ohio Volunteer infantry in the civil war, and took a conspicuous part in the Battle of Shiloh, in which the younger appeared in the role of a drummer boy in repeated charges.

Joseph R. Cockerill represented Adams county in the house of the Fifth general assembly, 1852-1854; again in the Fifty-eighth, 1868-1870, of which his son was journal clerk, and also of the Fifty-ninth, 1870-1872. He was a Democratic leader in the councils of his party in the state.

In 1836 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Sixth district, Adams, Clermont, Highland and Brown counties, and served a single term.

LAWRENCE W. HALL.

Lawrence W. Hall was a man of local prominence in Crawford county, who had been intrusted with various local positions of trust and responsibility. He was elected to a single term in 1856, to the Thirty-fifth congress, from the Ninth district, comprising Crawford, Seneca, Sandusky, Ottawa, Hardin, Marion and Wyandot counties. He was born in Lake county, Ohio, in 1819, and died Jan. 26, 1863.

JOSEPH MILLER

Of Ross county served a single term in the national legislature. He was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress in 1856 from the Tenth district, composed of the counties of Ross, Pike, Jackson, Lawrence and Scioto. He was a highly respected citizen, but was not inclined to seek for political honors. He was born in Ohio about 1820. During the latter years of his life he served as United States judge in Nebraska Territory.

JOSEPH BURNS

Of Coshocton county, a gentleman held in high esteem by his neighbors, served a single term in congress, having been elected to the Thirty-fifth from the Fifteenth district, comprising the counties of Coshocton, Tuscarawas, Knox and Holmes. He was a Democrat. He was born in Waynesboro, Virginia, March 11, 1800, and died when past 75.

WILLIAM LAWRENCE OF GUERNSEY.

William Lawrence, a pioneer citizen of Guernsey county, a life-long Democrat, respected as highly by his political antagonists as by his political friends and associates, served in the house of the legislature in the Forty-second general assembly, 1843-1844, and in the senate of the Fifty-second, the Fifty-eighth and Sixty-seventh, representing the Nineteenth district, Guernsey and Monroe counties.

In 1856 he was elected to the Thirty-fifth congress from the Seventeenth district, containing the counties of Guernsey, Belmont, Monroe and Noble.

JOHN A. GURLEY.

Rev John A. Gurley of Cincinnati was twice honored by his constituents as a congressman. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Second district, a part of Hamilton county, and re-elected from the same district in 1860 to the Thirty-seventh. He was a gentleman of considerable prominence at his home. He was born in East Hartford, Conn., Dec. 9, 1813, and died August 19, 1863, at Cincinnati, where he was editor of The Western Star, a religious paper.

WILLIAM ALLEN.

William Allen was a citizen of something more than local prominence in Darke county. He was elected as a Democrat to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fourth district, Darke, Miami, Shelby, Auglaize, Mercer and Allen counties, and re-elected in 1860 from the same district to the Thirty-seventh. He was born in Butler county, Ohio, August 13, 1827.

JAMES M. ASHLEY.

James M. Ashley, a Republican, was for many years a most prominent figure in state and national politics, possessing, as he did, a high order of ability, both as an orator and a thinker. He was born in the state of Pennsylvania, Nov. 14, and lived till he passed the three-quarter century mark.

He located at Toledo, where he entered the drug business in 1851, but his stock being destroyed by fire, with no insurance, he abandoned the business. Having previously read law and being already admitted to the bar, he began the practice and was eminently successful in it. In his later years he was interested in many railway corporations and enterprises, and displayed a high order of ability in that line.

He was a Whig and then a Republican. He was a delegate to the first Republican national convention, which nominated General John C. Fremont for president in 1856. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fifth district, comprising Lucas, Wood, Van Wert, Paulding, Putnam, Henry, Defiance, Williams and Fulton, and was re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district.

In 1862 he was chosen from the Tenth district, made up of the counties of Lucas, Wood, Henry, Putnam, Paulding, Defiance, Fulton and Williams, and was re-elected from the same district in 1862 to the Thirty-eighth, in 1864 to the Thirty-ninth and in 1866 to the Fortieth. He was one of the managers on the part of the house of representatives in the impeachment proceedings against President Andrew Johnson.

JOHN CAREY

John Carey was one of the substantial citizens of Wyandot county, and took a leading part in pushing the various enterprises that developed its agricultural greatness. He was elected as a member of the house in the Twenty-seventh general assembly, and was also a member of the same body in the Thirty-fifth.

He was sent to congress for a single term, having been elected to the Thirty-sixth in 1858 from the Ninth district, Wyandot, Hardin, Marion, Crawford, Seneca, Sandusky and Ottawa counties. He was born in Monongahela county, Virginia, April 5, 1792, and lived to an advanced age.

WILLIAM HOWARD.

William Howard of Clermont county represented that county and Brown in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth general assemblies, as a member of the senate, from 1849 to 1851. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Sixth district, made up of Clermont, Brown, Highland and Adams counties, serving but a single term. He was a native of Virginia and was born in the year 1800.

CAREY A. TRIMBLE.

Carey A. Trimble of Chillicothe, who was for years a leading and highly respected citizen of Ross county, was twice a member of the national house. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Tenth district, Ross, Pike, Jackson, Scioto and Lawrence counties, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district. He was a physician by profession and was the son of Governor Trimble, and born in Hillsboro, Ohio, April 13, 1813.

CHARLES D. MARTIN.

Judge Charles D. Martin of Lancaster was one of the brightest lights in the celebrated bar of Fairfield county, and enjoyed a wide practice, not only in Fairfield but in adjoining counties, and in the supreme court of the state.

His career in congress, however, was brief, consisting of but a single term. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858, over Valentine B. Horton, in the Eleventh district, Fairfield, Hocking, Perry, Athens, Vinton and Meigs, and defeated by him in 1860.

From 1883 to 1886 he was a member of the supreme court commission, a supplementary supreme court, to aid the regular body in the disposal of accumulated business, and was appointed by the governor. His decisions were models of clearness and precision, and many of them have continued as precedents.

He was born in Mt. Vernon, Ohio, August 5, 1829, and was educated in the public schools of Mt. Vernon and at Kenyon college. He was admitted to the bar in September, 1850, and entered upon the practice of his profession at Lancaster, where, in 1899 he is the Nestor of the Fairfield county bar.

HARRISON G. BLAKE

No man stood higher at the bar, nor in the estimation of the people of Medina county and in northeastern Ohio, than Harrison G. Blake of Medina. He was of Connecticut lineage, was born in 1826, and died in 1876. He was a member of the house of representatives during the Forty-fifth and Forty-sixth general assemblies, 1846-1848, and was a member of the senate in the Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth, and speaker of that body in 1849-1850.

In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress from the Fourteenth district, Medina, Lorain, Wayne and Ashland counties, and was re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district. He was an able legislator, as he was a brilliant lawyer.

WILLIAM HELMICK.

William Helmick was a highly respected citizen of Tuscarawas county, devoted to the pursuits of private life and caring little for the allurements of office. He served a single term in congress and that was sufficient to sate any ambitions that he might have possessed. He was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress in 1858 from the Fifteenth district, composed of Tuscarawas, Coshocton, Knox and Holmes counties. He was born in Jefferson county, Ohio Sept 6 1817.

SIDNEY EDGERTON

For more than half a century Sidney Edgerton was one of the leading citizens of Summit county, and while he had little inclination toward public or official life, he was intrusted with many local positions of trust and responsibility.

He was born in Cazenovia, Madison county, New York, August 17, 1818. He was educated in the common schools, worked for some years as a carpenter, and then engaged in teaching. He graduated from the Cincinnati Law school, admitted to the bar, and in 1844 located at Akron, where he built up a large law practice. From 1852 to 1856 he was prosecuting attorney of Summit county. In 1858 he was elected to the Thirty-sixth congress, as a Republican, from the Eighteenth district, Summit, Portage and Stark counties, and re-elected to the Thirty-seventh in 1860 from the same district.

In 1863 President Lincoln appointed him chief justice of Idaho Territory, and he filled the position with marked ability. In 1864 the president appointed him governor of Montana Territory, which office he held until 1867, when he resigned and resumed the practice of his profession at Akron, declining to accept further official preferment.

FEAR FOR MINISTERS.

Grave Apprehension Among Government Officials.

CHINA TO BE HELD TO ACCOUNT.

Will Be Made to Settle for Any Injury to American Interests in the Present Crisis — Problem of Relief Worrying the Administration.

Washington, Aug. 9.—The gravest apprehensions are felt here in official circles for the safety of the imprisoned ministers in Peking. The alleged statement of Li Hung Chang that it is absolutely impossible for the allies to enter Peking to escort the ministers to Tien Tsin adds greatly to the seriousness of the situation. It clearly implies the purpose of the Chinese government to resist the advance movement of the allied forces to the full extent of its power, coupled with the further implication that further hostile demonstrations on the part of the allies may jeopardize the lives of the ministers.

So far as known there is no present purpose of calling a halt in the allied movement against Peking. It is acknowledged that the relief column is not strong enough to maintain war against the Chinese kingdom for any great length of time, but heavy reinforcements are en route to China.

Their arrival on the scene may alter the situation entirely and bring the obstinate orientals to their senses.

The Chinese will be held to a strict accountability for any injury that may be sustained by American interests in the present crisis. What should be done for the immediate relief of the ministers is the problem now confronting the administration and is the subject of anxious conferences between the officials in this city and telegraphic correspondence with the president at Canton and the secretary of state at Sunapee, N. Y.

Acting Secretary Adee received a cable message from Consul Goodnow at Shanghai, giving information in his possession in regard to the situation in China, including the operations of the allied forces engaged in the advance on Peking. It was referred to the secretary of war and was not made public.

ALL SAFE ON AUG. 3.

IN BRITISH LEGATION.

Minister MacDonald Sent a Message—Total Killed 60 and Wounded 110 Under Rifle Fire.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—In the house of commons Mr. Broderick, parliamentary secretary for the foreign office read a telegram from Sir Claude MacDonald, British minister to China, received in cipher at the foreign office Aug. 9. The dispatch was in reply to a government message and bore date of Peking, Aug. 3. It was as follows:

"I have today received your cipher telegram forwarded to me by the Chinese minister. The shell and cannon fire ceased on July 16, but the rifle fire has continued from the Chinese positions held by government troops and Boxers intermittently ever since. The casualties since then have been slight. Except one private of marines, all the wounded are doing well. The rest of the British in the legation are well, including the whole garrison.

"The total of killed is 60 and of wounded 110. We have over 200 women and children refugees in the legation. The Chinese government has refused transmission to telegrams in cipher until now."

"Mr. Broderick also read the following dispatch from Admiral Seymour, filed at Che Foo, Aug. 6:

"The allies, about 12,000 strong attacked the Chinese entrenched position at Hsiku, about two miles outside Tien Tsin, early this morning. The Chinese were driven out and retired northward, pursued by the allies, who occupied Peitsang. Transports followed up the troops by road and river. The advance upon Peking has been begun."

MESSAGES CAN BE SENT.

An Imperial Edict Allowing the Privilege to Ministers Communicated to Minister Wu.

Washington, Aug. 9.—Minister Wu received an edict issued August 2, in which the Chinese government permits the powers to hold open and free communication with their ministers. This includes the sending of cipher messages.

The edict also said in part: "Throughout the disturbances recently caused by our subjects on account of Christian missions, which have resulted in a conflict of forces, it has been found necessary to afford protection to all the foreign ministers in Peking. On repeated occasions the Tsung Li Yamen sent notes inquiring after their welfare. And as Peking has not yet been restored to order and precautionary measures may not secure absolute safety, the foreign ministers are being consulted as to the proposed plan of detailing troops to escort them safely to Tien Tsin for temporary shelter, so that they may be free from apprehensive anxiety or fear.

"We hereby command Yung Lu to appoint as a preliminary step trustworthy high civil and military officials, who, together with reliable and efficient troops, shall, at such time as the foreign ministers may agree upon, for leaving Peking, escort and protect them throughout their journey. Should lawless characters manifest evil designs upon the ministers or attempt to rob them or in any way create trouble, they (the high officials) shall at once repress them without fail."

Aguinaldo May Surrender.

New York, Aug. 6.—A Hongkong special to The World said that General MacArthur was negotiating for the surrender of Aguinaldo, and it is believed that the Philippine leader will surrender within the next week.

A NOTE TO VICEROYS.

United States Government Sends One Bordering Closely On An Ultimatum in Character.

Washington, Aug. 9.—As a result of a conference between the president, Acting Secretary of State Adee, Secretary Root and General Corbin, a cablegram was sent early to Consul General Goodnow, including a copy of the dispatch from Minister Conger and advising him of the situation as it is understood here. He was directed to communicate this to Earl Li Hung Chang, to Sheng and to such viceroys as can transmit it to whatever government there is in the Chinese empire. This cable contained what is said to be a very emphatic statement of the position of this government and saying that action is immediately necessary. While it is not strictly speaking an ultimatum, it is very close to it.

A REPLY TO CONGER.

Advised Him of Approach of Relief Column—Exhorts Him to Be Cheerful.

Washington, Aug. 9.—A reply has been sent to Minister Conger by the state department to the message received from him. It advises him of the approach of the relief column and exhorts him to be of good cheer. The dispatch was sent direct to Minister Conger at Peking and a duplicate of it to Consul General Goodnow at Shanghai. Goodnow was directed to spare no pains or expense to get the message to Minister Conger.

WALDERSEE TO COMMAND.

German Foreign Office Does Not Say So, But Some Newspapers So Declared.

London, Aug. 9.—The report of the appointment of Field Marshal Count von Waldersee as commander in chief of the international force meets with general approval.

Berlin, Aug. 9.—The German foreign office, while admitting that Waldersee has been appointed commander of the German force in China, does not say he is to command the international forces, but some of the German papers so declare.
